

KernBHRS remains open & ready to serve the community

Kern Behavioral Health & Recovery Services (KernBHRS) will keep several of its locations open to provide essential behavioral health and substance use disorder services to Kern County.

Adult Outpatient Services – Available at both 5121 Stockdale Hwy. and 2525 N. Chester Ave., both located in Bakersfield, CA

Children's Services – Available at 3300 Truxtun Ave., Bakersfield, CA. For more information about KernBHRS Children's Services, please call 661-868-8300. Families can also contact their geographic providers if they are in need of any services.

Substance Use Disorder Services – Available at 1401 L St., Bakersfield, CA, or by calling the 24-hour Substance Use Disorder Access Line at 1-866-266-4898.

Immediate Behavioral Health Services – Available at the Mary K. Shell Health Center, 2151 College Ave., Bakersfield, CA OR at the Ridgecrest CSU, located at 1141 Chelsea St., Ridgecrest, CA

Crisis Hotline- Support is one call away. The KernBHRS Crisis Hotline will remain open 24/7 at 1-800-991-5272.

12:50 P.M. ON 03/26/20

