SCR CELEBRATES THE HOLIDAY SEASON

Tree Lighting & Prayer Ceremony

Rowan County High School "Select Choir" performing at the Tree Lighting & Prayer Ceremony

The Holiday Season was ushered in on December 3 with the annual Tree Lighting and Prayer Ceremony. SCR president/CEO, Mark J. Neff, welcomed board members, staff and the community and introduced Sister Marla Monahan, SND who led an opening prayer. Patty Thomas, SCR telemetry clerical technician, who has 40 years of service at the medical center was given the honor of lighting the tree.

The Rowan County High School "Select Choir", directed by Diehl Acherman led everyone in several Christmas songs. A closing prayer was led by Rev. Paul Prabell from Jesus Our Savior Catholic Church in Morehead.

Following the ceremony attendees enjoyed hot chocolate and cookies, while the Rowan County "Select Choir" toured the medical center caroling.

Staff Christmas Party

Emily Fulton takes a photo with Santa at the staff Christmas party.

SCR staff celebrated the holiday season on Friday, December 18, at the annual Staff Christmas Party. SCR dietary staff provided an assortment of treats and drinks for staff members to enjoy.

The human resources department handed out Christmas gifts and the marketing department distributed the SCR 2010 calendar. This year, full-time staff members received a fleece blanket and part-time staff received a fleece scarf. The 2010 SCR calendar features photographs from SCR's 11-county service area by local photographer Dean Hill.

Santa Claus, played by Dr. Black, made an appearance to hand out candy canes and pose for photos.

Management Forum Christmas Breakfast

Tom Lewis and RogerRussell received SCR 2010 calendars from Santa at the Management Forum Christmas Party

Department managers gathered on Monday, December 21, for the annual Management Forum Christmas Breakfast. Managers were served a wonderful breakfast, given their Christmas gifts . Each manager received a SCR camping chair.

Amazing. Medicine. Close to Home.