

Accreditation Information

The Truman Medical Center Hospital Hill School of Nurse Anesthesia is accredited by the Council on Accreditation of Nurse Anesthesia Educational Programs. On May 29, 2015 the program was granted continued accreditation for the maximum 10 years and will be scheduled for its next review in Spring 2025.

Council on Accreditation of Nurse Anesthesia Educational Programs (COA)
222. S. Prospect Avenue
Park Ridge, IL 60068-4001
847.655.1160 (phone)
847.728.8128 (fax)
accreditation@coacrna.org

Truman Medical Center Hospital Hill School of Nurse Anesthesia is certified to operate annually by the Missouri Department of Higher Education.

Performance Data

The rate of attrition for the Class of 2019 was 27%.

82% of Class of 2019 graduates were employed as CRNAs within 6 months of graduation.

The first time pass rate on the National Certification Examination for the Class of 2019 was 82%.

Notices

Truman Medical Center Hospital Hill School of Nurse Anesthesia does not discriminate based on race, color, religion, age, gender, national origin, marital status, physical or mental handicap or disability, sexual orientation or any factor protected by law.

If you believe that you have been denied admission because of your race, color, religion, age, gender, national origin, marital status, physical or mental handicap or disability, sexual orientation, or any factor protected by law, you should call 816-404-1127 within 5 working days from the date you receive your denial letter. We will send you the appropriate forms for filing a grievance. Once we have received the completed forms, we will investigate your complaint and advise you of the results.

Truman Medical Center Hospital Hill School of Nurse Anesthesia will not permit publication or advertisement in any form that misrepresents the clinical, didactic or accreditation status of our school.