Accreditation Information

The Truman Medical Center Hospital Hill School of Nurse Anesthesia is accredited by the Council on Accreditation of Nurse Anesthesia Educational Programs. On May 29, 2015, the Council granted the program continued accreditation for the maximum 10 years. The program’s next review will be in spring 2025.

Council on Accreditation of Nurse Anesthesia Educational Programs (COA)
222. S. Prospect Avenue
Park Ridge, IL 60068-4001
847.655.1160 (phone)
https://coacrna.org

In addition, State of Missouri Coordinating Board for Higher Education certifies the program to operate annually.

Performance Data

The rate of attrition for the Classes of 2020 and 2021 was 0%.

100% of Class of 2021 graduates were employed as CRNAs within 6 months of graduation.

Class of 2021 graduates achieved a 94% pass rate on the National Certification Examination (NCE) on their first attempt. The cohort had a 100% NCE pass rate within 30 days of completing the program.

Notices

Truman Medical Center prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, religion, color, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity and sexual orientation), parental status, national origin, age, disability, family medical history or genetic information, political affiliation, military service, or other non-merit based factors.

If an applicant believes that they have been denied admission because of discrimination, they should call 816-404-1127 within five (5) business days to report a grievance.

Truman Medical Center Hospital Hill (TMC-HH) School of Nurse Anesthesia does not permit the misrepresentation of its current or past accreditation status, board results, or graduation statistics in any advertising, catalog, or publication. Furthermore, the School does not permit publication of false information by any affiliate.