

CHRISTIAN SPALLINO, M.D., TRANSITIONAL YEAR

Where did you attend medical school?

Ross University School of Medicine

What other higher education, credentials, or certificates have you obtained?

Gonzaga University – Bachelor of Science
Molecular Biology

What is your hometown?

Wailuka, Maui, Hawaii

What is your medical practice interest?

Anesthesiology

Why did you choose the Unity Health Graduate Medical Education program?

Unity serves several surrounding counties, which provides exposure to wide array of socioeconomic backgrounds and unique pathologies.

What impact do you hope to have on the medical field?

I hope to spread the incredible luxury of first-world medicine on international surgical mission.

What hobbies, interests, or talents do you have outside of medicine?

Surfing, snowboarding, cliff-diving, jamming on the ukulele

