

Marcus Hudson M.D., Family Medicine

Medical School:	Texas Tech Health Sciences Center School of Medicine
Higher education:	Texas A&M - Biology & Psychology
Hometown:	Dallas, Texas
Medical practice interests:	I like the clinic. I think I would enjoy working with geriatric patients. However, I am still trying to figure out whether I like working with a specific patient group or a variety of community practice.
Recreational activities/hobbies:	It's changed a lot since COVID, but I enjoy watching movies, cooking, and reading.
