University of Pittsburgh - Neuroscience

What is your hometown?

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

What is your medical practice interest?

Critical Care, Neuro Critical Care

What impact do you hope to have on the medical field?

My experiences have taught me that medical ailments do not only impact one person, but their entire network. I want to be an actively present, compassionate physician who can advocate, educate, and reassure both patients and their families.

What hobbies, interests, or talents do you have outside of medicine?

I like to keep myself busy with weight lifting or video games. I also take a huge interest in cars and bikes even before i got my drivers license. I enjoyed dancing on recreational Bhangra teams both in undergrad and in medical school.
