FMTI scholarship application

Through the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts education scholarship fund, we are able to provide high-quality, professional arts experiences for those who wouldn't otherwise have the opportunity to pursue artistic excellence.

overview

- » Scholarships are awarded based on financial need and/or strong interest and/or exceptional talent in the performing arts.
- » Candidates who are high school rising sophomores through graduating seniors may receive a scholarship to attend the florida musical theatre intensive program.
- » Applications are processed on a first come, first served basis depending on the fund's financial status and the availability of program space.
- » FMTI: Completed scholarship applications and supporting documents are due by January 31, 2027.

application requirements

Candidates must submit all of the following items to be reviewed:

- » Complete an application form describing their interest in the FMTI program, how they would benefit from this program, and why financial assistance is necessary. This all should be submitted to fmti@drphillipscenter.org.
- » Submit a copy of the front page of their parent's/guardian's current Form 1040 and accompanying Form W-2(s).
Applications will only be reviewed if they include both the 1040 and W-2(s). The tax documentation submitted must have the applicant (student) listed as a dependent.
- » Submit a completed application to the FMTI program including a letter of reference from a teacher, instructor, employer or administrator, audition videos, headshot, resume, etc. as outlined in the application here:
<https://airtable.com/appz63Bv51l8npp0/pagkJyaDEQ157NAZu/form>
- » Applicants for our FMTI program will also need to submit a video of themselves and a guardian answering the short answer questions on page 3 of this application.
