Another of the great things about independent businesses is that they're run by people, not boards or stockholders, and you will likely get to know them. Quite often these people, such as family-run shop owners, will have interesting stories as to how their stores came to be and about the area you're living in. This personal touch cannot be matched by a chain.
