Location
Redditch is in the West Midlands, located approximately 14 miles south of Birmingham City Centre and 15 miles west of Coventry. Redditch is a strategic industrial and distribution location with excellent road communications, bounded by the M5 to the west and M40 to the east. As such, Redditch consistently proves popular with high profile occupiers including Halfords, Pilkington Automotive, Edmundson Electrical, Arconic, Baylis & Harding and Calderhead.

Situation
Target Park is situated in the Lakeside area of Redditch and is one of many dedicated industrial areas within Redditch. The Estate is accessed of Shawbank Road via Holloway Drive, which links directly to Warwick Highway, providing access to both the A441 and A435. Excellent access is therefore provided to both J2 and J3 of the M42 which is approximately 4 miles to the north. Current occupiers in the area include;

- Magnet Trade
- Reynards Ltd
- Johns of Studley
- Rim Logistics
- Weg Motors.

Description
Target Park was a new speculative development constructed approximately 12 years ago. The scheme was built to an institutional specification for units of this size.

Units 9 and 10 each include the following salient features;

- 7.5m Eaves
- 2 Electric loading doors to each unit
- Gas fired heating
- 3 phase power
- Floor Loading 37.5 kn / m2
- FM2 floor design
- Fully racked (Can be removed)
- Office and Reception area
- WC
- Generous Yard with Parking

A loading ramp can be provided with the property to provide dock access. There is also the ability to increase the office content of the unit.

EPC
The energy performance rating of the units is as follows:

Unit 9: C (55)  Unit 10: C (55)
