

Camp Your Way in the Catskills

Discover your ideal outdoor escape just two hours from New York City.

The Great Northern Catskills offer a range of stays to suit every traveler, from secluded backcountry sites and family-friendly RV parks to design-forward glamping retreats.

Set up camp, and set out to discover it all — from hiking, biking, paddling or fishing to cooling off at a family-friendly waterpark, catching a live concert, or exploring nearby towns.

DAYTIME ADVENTURE, STARRY NIGHTS

Hike to scenic overlooks, paddle calm mountain lakes, cast a line into world-class trout streams, or wander charming towns rich with local culture.

As evening falls, return to the warmth of a crackling campfire or a cozy canvas tent beneath some of the Northeast's darkest skies.

Prepare for the Wild

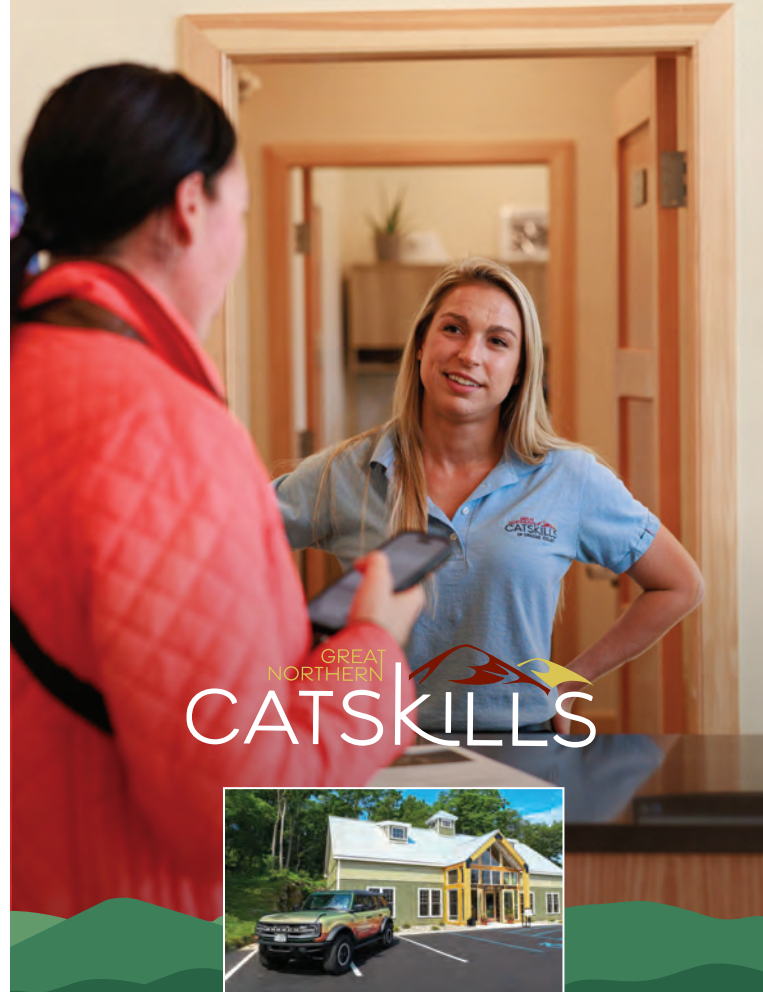

Planning a primitive or backcountry stay? Check weather conditions, trail updates, and local regulations before you go.

Visit dec.ny.gov for camping guidelines, and help preserve the wilderness by following the seven Leave No Trace principles.

Your next adventure begins under #RealCatskills skies.
