1. Background

- 1.1. British Gymnastics is committed to providing a high-quality experience for all our customers and continually strives to improve and surpass our customers' expectations. There may be times when we do not meet our expected standards, and if this is the case, we want to hear about it, deal with the situation as quickly as possible and put measures in place to stop it happening again.

2. Purpose

- 2.1. The policy sets out the procedures for making complaints about British Gymnastics, and how these complaints will be handled.
- 2.2. Further, the policy ensures that a framework is in place for ensuring that complaints are handled in a timely, fair and proportionate manner.

3. Scope

- 3.1. Who can raise a complaint?
 - 3.1.1. Anyone, member or non-member, can make a formal complaint to British Gymnastics.
- 3.2. Policy Coverage
 - 3.2.1. This policy covers all issues relating to services or acts of British Gymnastics.
 - 3.2.2. Complaints that relate to services provided jointly between British Gymnastics and other organisations may be referred to either organisation in the first instance.
 - 3.2.3. It does not cover complaints against British Gymnastics staff. These complaints should be directed to the HR Department.
 - 3.2.4. Other complaints, for example relating to the conduct, behaviours or services of British Gymnastics Clubs, Coaches, Members or Affiliated Organisations where there is an alleged breach of any British Gymnastics policy, Standards of Conduct, the Membership Rules or Articles of Association, should be made using the Complaints & Disciplinary Policy and Procedures. These can be found on the British Gymnastics website.
 - 3.2.5. Complaints, allegations or concerns about safeguarding should be made by phone to British Gymnastics (0345 1297129) or to safeguarding@british-gymnastics.org. Should a complaint be raised to British Gymnastics which includes a Safeguarding element, these will be managed by the Complaints Resolutions Officer in conjunction with the Safeguarding Team.
 - 3.2.6. Data subject access requests and other requests that relate to individual rights under data protection law will be referred to the Data Protection Officer (DPO). Complaints raised to British Gymnastics which include a data protection element are managed by the Complaints Resolutions Officer. Where a complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of a complaint managed by the Complaints Resolutions Officer, this will be referred to the DPO.
 - 3.2.7. British Gymnastics registered clubs, as separate business entities, should have their own complaints process and any complaints relating to the management of a club, their fees, rules and requirements should be directed to the club to respond to. Once this process is completed, if the complainant is not satisfied with the response, they can request the Conduct & Disciplinary Manager review the outcome using the Complaints and Disciplinary Policy and Procedures.

3.2.8. Complaints related solely to the following entities should be directed to them:

- 3.2.8.1. Home Countries -English Gymnastics, Welsh Gymnastics, Scottish Gymnastics and Gymnastics Northern Ireland

10.7.2. Information relating to your complaint that has been provided in confidence will not be disclosed to any third parties without your permission, unless there is an overriding justification, for example where failure to disclose would put others at significant risk of harm or we are required to under our obligations in law. However, if your complaint relates to any third parties, you should be aware that this may make it difficult for us to investigate and resolve your complaint without disclosing the nature of your complaint.

10.7.1. Any personal data provided in connection with a complaint will be processed in accordance with data protection laws. Further information about how we use your personal data is provided in our privacy notices.

- 10.8.4. Following this, they will provide a further formal response.
- 10.8.5. Once this second stage response has been provided, there is no further escalation or appeals process, except where there is an appeal against a decision regarding a UKCC qualification assessment for coaching, which can be referred to 1st4sport.
- 10.9. Handling Persistent Complainants and Vexatious Complaints
- 10.9.1. If a complaint is considered to be vexatious and/or the behaviour of a complainant is overly persistent, and/or making disproportionate demands on time and resources, the Integrity Director will determine a course of action from the following:
- 10.9.2. Try to resolve the issue in accordance with these procedures, by contacting the individual in writing to explain the difficulties and to set out a preferred method of behaviour for the parties involved. This may, for example include requiring the complainant to communicate in a certain way e.g. in writing or with a specific individual, limit the frequency of communications and electronically diverting communications to a specific individual
- 10.9.3. Decline contact with the complainant or restrict contact to a specific format
- 10.9.4. Notify the complainant in writing that the complaint has been fully responded to and there is nothing further to add; continuing contact will serve no useful purpose and that further correspondence will be acknowledged but not answered
- 10.9.5. In extreme cases, it may be necessary to instruct legal proceedings to deter the individual from further contact
- 10.9.6. Due regard should be given to whether the complainant has a disability, health condition or personal circumstances that may have a bearing on the complaining behaviour. In the interests of fairness, any relevant personal circumstances should be considered fully when determining an appropriate course of action.
