About Femme Petale

Femme Petale is a style led florist, based in London. We exist to bring epic florals to weddings around the country.

We'd love to go to every wedding we're asked to flower for but we recognise that we can't do them all. So we've created a 'Ready to Wear' collection, so more Femme Petale flowers can be carried down the aisle and adorn your wedding breakfasts.

How it Works

All our packages have a minimum spend of £350 to ensure we can buy the right flowers from the market to create your gorgeous designs.

For budgets under £600, the colour palette will be florists choice, rest assured it will be seasonal and beautiful.

For budgets over £600, you're able to choose your colour palette.

We have 2 style choices and prices below. For tables, you have the option of returning the vases/bowls back to us within 3 days or keeping them and giving them to your guests!

A Note on Delivery

We offer free collection from our Studio in Wimbledon for all Ready to Wear designs.

We can offer delivery to a venue for 15% of the order total, someone must be able to sign for the items upon delivery.
