

WEDDINGS

WITH CHARLOTTE AMY PHOTOGRAPHY

Hey!

I'm Charlotte, an award winning Wedding + Family photographer, based in East Sussex, covering Sussex, Kent, London and the rest of the world!

Welcome aboard! I am so happy you are here!

My approach to photographing your wedding day is relaxed, informal and personal. I love to capture the real moments, not only of you and your partner but of your guests too. Specifically anyone falling over, laughing till they cry or kids picking noses. They're my favourite parts.

If something doesn't quite go to plan then you'll usually find me sorting it all out before you even realise. My levels of commitment to your wedding day go above and beyond. I have sewn on buttons to jackets, I have ferried guests from venue to venue, I have even dashed to M+S to get the flower girl a pair of knickers. (True story).

I focus on the emotion, the bits in between the 'I do's' and ALL the laughs! I love to get up close and you'll soon forget I'm there whilst I work. I used to stay back and hide in a corner but I have learnt the most natural photos I take are when I have been chatting to guests and they begin to feel more comfortable with me around.

Your wedding day isn't one big photoshoot, its about sharing a celebration with all of your friends and family and I'm there to document it for you with a creative and energised approach.

I photograph what I see, so you will always have beautifully documented images that portray your day in a way that was raw and honest.

I know some people love the formal lined up photographs (maybe not for you but the older relatives love them!), and you can still get all of those crucial shots as well as the details and the first kiss, but with a large part of you reflected in it too. I always leave space for the family photos but I never make it the main part of my work.

I want your personalities to shine through, as that's what makes having a professional photographer even more worthwhile.

“Thank you. Overwhelmed. I cried multiple times. We love them! We will never be able to thank you enough.”

— Charlotte + Chris

“From the very first Skype meeting with Charlotte we knew she was the perfect photographer for our wedding!
Charlotte is friendly, fun and very talented!

She was also the hero of the hour when I forgot to pack knickers for my 5 year old flower girl and she rushed out to buy some for us!”

My pricing is very simple, I offer a small and intimate package for those just seeking a little coverage for their ceremony with some portraits before and/or after, or the full shebang covering from prep to party!

No hidden fees, no aggressive sales techniques. As they say on that Love Island programme I regrettably once watched...
'It is what it is.'

You have (hopefully) read about how I approach a wedding and the way I shoot, so here's what I offer in the way of my services and for how much, and with any luck your budget and ideas fit with my work and ethos and we can connect!
