Case: #FJ-250611-100

A default judgment has been issued against you, resulting in the revocation of your status as a citizen or national of the Xi-Amaru Republic.

This decision may have been made for one or more of the following reasons:

1. Opting out on the Governing Authority Form.
2. Failure to complete the Governing Authority Form by the designated deadline.
3. Allegations of treason.
4. Threats made against the Chief or other officials of the nation.
5. Formal Request to be removed by you or guardian.
6. Other

Please note that this judgment is final, and you are no longer recognized within our system as a citizen or national of the Xi-Amaru Republic. You are no longer obligated to fulfill any responsibilities associated with this status.

Any IDs or documentation issued by the nation should be considered inactive. If any third party contacts us to verify your identity, it will be presumed that you are committing fraud by claiming Xi-Amaru Native American status.

You must wait five years from the date of the first notice or this judgment—whichever was issued first—before you may potentially reapply for status.

Next Steps:

- No further action is required on your part.
- Appeal Process: If you believe this decision is a mistake, you have 30 days from the issue date to submit an appeal with supporting documentation for reconsideration.

Sincerely,
Aboriginal Ministry of Justice Team
