For every child who has a secret spot they love so much they want to keep it all to themselves.

In Anya's village, there was one tree
everyone loved most.

But Anya had a secret.
She knew something no one else knew.

One branch - the one that curved like an arm reaching for the sky - grew the sweetest mangoes of all.

Every afternoon, Anya climbed up
to her favourite spot.

She sat on the curved branch,
ate the sweetest mango,
and watched the whole world below.

The mango tree was her favourite place
in the whole world.

One Tuesday morning, a moving cart stopped outside the house next door.

A girl stepped out,
holding a small cloth bag
with a bird on it.

Anya watched from behind the gate.
'Who is she?' Anya wondered.

The next afternoon,
Anya ran to the mango tree as usual.
