Day 1 & 2

Ruaha National Park

This is where all of your planning becomes a reality: your safari starts now. Tanzania is such a wonderful country when it comes to wildlife and beautiful landscapes. Welcome to Tanzania!

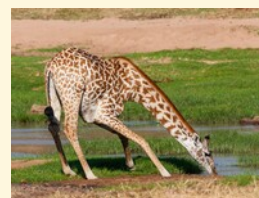

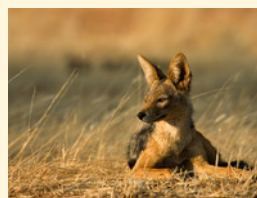

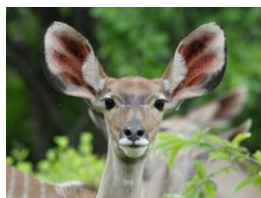

We will pick you from your location in Dar es Salaam in the morning of the first day, and transfer you to Dar es Salaam airport for a direct flight to Iringa – a gateway to your safari adventure. From Iringa Airport you'll be transferred directly to Ruaha National Park.

Here at Ruaha you'll get to see big lion prides and even bigger herds of elephant and buffalo. Many unusual antelope species, with both lesser and greater kudu are present. Leopards are also a possibility. Giraffe, hippo and zebra are commonly found here, and more than 450 different bird species have been seen.

Very few visitors make it here compared to other Tanzanian parks, so you'll likely enjoy a strong wilderness feeling as a result. Just after sunrise and in the hour before sunset, the grasslands of Ruaha turn to gold and all the animals come out into the open. These are the times visitors most enjoy being here.

Welcome to the wild kingdom
