

CECILY STRONG TO STAR IN JANE WAGNER'S
"THE SEARCH FOR SIGNS OF INTELLIGENT LIFE IN THE UNIVERSE"
A CO-PRODUCTION WITH THE SHED
AT CENTER THEATRE GROUP / MARK TAPER FORUM
SEPTEMBER 21 – OCTOBER 23, 2022

"Saturday Night Live" star Cecily Strong will perform in Jane Wagner's one-woman show "The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe" at Center Theatre Group / Mark Taper Forum this fall. Directed by Leigh Silverman, "The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe" begins previews September 21, opens September 28, and runs through October 23, 2022. Produced in association with Lorne Michaels and Bill Damaschke, "The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe" is presented in association with The Shed.

Interweaving the seemingly disparate lives of a punk-rock rebel, a socialite, a feminist and a deceptively insightful observer, among many others, the Drama Desk-winning Unique Theatrical Experience "The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe" earned Lily Tomlin a Tony Award® for Best Actress in a Play. Now Emmy®-nominated actress Cecily Strong slides through the tour-de-force roles created by the Peabody and Emmy Award-winning writer Jane Wagner who is reimagining the legendary one-person play for 2022. This new production was originally produced by The Shed in New York, NY in 2021.

"I have long been fascinated by the mystical implications of quantum theory," said Wagner. "In truth, my dream was to get the audience to experience the universality of the deep interconnectedness of all living things – with Trudy as the guide... I wanted us to flash on just that thought – that we're all connected." The creative team includes Christine Jones and Mary Hamrick (scenic co-design), Anita Yavich (costume design), Lap Chi Chu (lighting design), Jeff Gardner (sound design), Joseph Whitmeyer (wig design), and Steve Cuiffo (illusion design) with composition by Andrea "Slim" Allmond.
