- EVENT: “Kristina Wong, Sweatshop Overlord”
Written & Performed by Kristina Wong
Directed by Chay Yew
A Co-Production with East West Players
With additional support from the Skirball Cultural Center
- DESCRIPTION: On day three of the COVID-19 pandemic, Kristina Wong began sewing masks out of old bed sheets and bra straps on her Hello Kitty sewing machine. Before long, she was leading the Auntie Sewing Squad, a work-from-home sweatshop of hundreds of volunteers—including children and her own mother—to fix the U.S. public health care system while in quarantine. It was a feminist utopia forming in the midst of crisis. Or was it a mutual doomsday cult? This Drama Desk, Outer Critics Circle, and Lortel Award-winning Pulitzer Finalist invites the audience in on Wong’s work building community in isolation, while reflecting on what we’ve been through and imagining what we want to become.
