

Donor Double Down: Newport News Business Exchange doubles down on political incumbents through its campaign arm. (Mayoral Campaign Fund +50% and Super PAC +100%)

— 1 —

Funding Foundations: GBI launches local foundation for Hampton Roads community. (Mayoral Campaign -50% and GBI Corporate Resources +$10M)

— 2 —

Committee Condemnation: The Seapower and Projection Forces subcommittee criticizes Admiral Reid in its annual report. (Representative Likability +10, Admiral Likability -10)

— 3 —

Congressman Critic: Representative Chase uncovers and condemns campaign finance irregularities at the Mayoral Campaign Fund. (Mayoral Campaign Fund -25% and Representative Likability +20%)

— 4 —

Super PAC Superspread: The American Defense Project's Super PAC new campaign against Mayor Wallace goes hyper-viral. (Mayoral Likability -20% and Super PAC Funding +50%)

— 5 —

Investor Invective: A major GBI investor condemns Representative Chase at a conference, even while going long on the company's trajectory. (Representative Likability -20% and GBI Corporate Resources +$5M)

— 6 —

AFL-CIO Applause: The president of the national AFL-CIO comes to Hampton Roads and gives a fiery speech to Local 9999. (Unionization Rate +20% and Mayoral Likability +5%) — 7 —

Murky Money: Local 9999 union finds additional funds in untracked bank account. (Union Membership Fees +50% and Unionization Rate -5%)

— 8 —

Corruption Crackdown: Admiral Reid discovered an overcost kickback scheme at the Local 9999 union and orders a penalty fine. (Unionization Rate -20% and Admiral Likability +10%)

— 9 —

Rapacious Repairs: A senior exec at GBI has been charged and GBI fined by the Department of Justice in bilking the shipyard repair fund. (Shipyard Repairs -$20M and GBI Corporate Resources -$10M)

— 10 —

Canadian Charity, eh?: Mayor Wallace successfully travels to Canada on a trade mission to fundraise for the shipyard. (Mayoral Likability +10% and Shipyard Repairs +$10M)

— 11 —

Substack Submission: Local 9999's newsletter thanks Substacker Carmichael for being a paid shill. Carmichael denies it in a major newspaper editorial. (Union Membership Dues -100% and Substack Subscribers -20%) — 12 —

Aplomb Address: Admiral Reid delivers a rapturous address to the US Naval Academy Alumni Association & Foundation. (Admiral Likability +20% and Shipyard Repairs +$5M)

— 13 —

Helpful Hedges: A double bottom line hedge fund invests in GBI, claiming that greater unionization will lead to greater profits. (GBI Corporate Resources +$20M and Unionization Rate +10%)

— 14 —

Acerbic Analysis: Substacker Carmichael pans Newport News's city budget in a scathing analysis. (Mayoral Likability -10% and Substack Subscribers +10%)

— 15 —

URL Urn: Mayor Wallace's campaign team accidentally directed all campaign fund web visitors to the wrong fundraising form. (Mayoral Likability -5% and Mayoral Campaign Fund -100%)

— 16 —

Local Lazy Loose Lips: Representative Chase is recorded speaking badly about the work ethic of Local 9999 workers at a mansion on Martha's Vineyard. (Representative Likability -5% and Union Membership Fees +25%)

— 17 —

United Union: A senator attached to the American Defense Project's Super PAC gives a barnstorming speech on the benefits of unions in Hampton Roads. (Super PAC Funding +25% and Union Membership Fees +100%)

— 18 —

Labor of Love: Local 9999 holds a workathon to repair the shipyard on off-days. (Unionization Rate +5% and Shipyard Repairs +$20M)

— 19 —

Super PAC Superpunch: The American Defense Project's Super PAC obliquely attacks Admiral Reid, causing a donor revolt. (Admiral Likability -5% and Super PAC Funding -50%)

— 20 —

Ruinous Repairs: Union workers repairing the shipyard found to have caused faulty wiring, triggering a fire. (Shipyard Repairs -$10M and Unionization Rate -10%)

— 21 —

Embarrassing Escapade: Mayor Wallace's campaign team slams an executive junket at the American Defense Project's Super PAC. (Mayoral Campaign Fund +25% and Super PAC Funding -100%)

— 22 —

Healthy Hellhole: State of Virginia's occupational safety office fines GBI after finding collusion to avoid Covid-19 testing mandates. (GBI Corporate Resources -$20M and Union Dues -25%)

— 23 —

Armed Awards: Center for New American Security awards Representative Chase and Admiral Reid with leadership awards. (Representative Likability +5% and Admiral Likability +5%)

— 24 —

Leaked Look: Representative Chase's staff reaches out to Substacker Carmichael's business manager to talk about submitting a guest post without a sponsorship label, which is leaked to the local press. (Representative Likability -10% and Substack Subscribers -5%)

— 25 —

Marketing Momentum: GBI aggressively sponsors a number of new media outlets, including the Virginia Stripes. (GBI Corporate Resources -$5M and Substack Subscribers +20%)

— 26 —

Paid Piper: Admiral Reid accepts a paid speaking engagement from the American Defense Project's Super PAC, violating ethics rules. (Super PAC Funding -25% and Admiral Likability -20%)

— 27 —

Blog Boon: Mayor Wallace's campaign team fundraises off of a well-written Virginia Stripes newsletter. (Substack Subscribers +5% and Mayoral Campaign Funds +100%)

— 28 —

Shadow Subscribers: Local 9999 discovered buying unused bulk subscriptions of the Virginia Stripes newsletter. (Substack Subscribers -10% and Union Membership Dues -50%)

— 29 —

Lighting Leader: Mayor Wallace gives electrifying speech after a lightning strike further damages the shipyard in Hampton Roads. (Mayor Likability +20% and Shipyard Repairs -$5M)

— 30 —

City Cyberheist: International hackers break into Mayor Wallace's campaign database. Reveals the last scene's Mayoral Campaign Fund spending data.

— 31 —

Super Leak of Super PAC: Cybersecurity leak of Super PAC files. Reveals the last scene's Super PAC spending data.

— 32 —

Corporate Raiders: A PE firm conducting due diligence on GBI accidentally loses financial files. Reveals the last scene's GBI Corporate Resources spending.

— 33 —

Local Union, International Heist: Hacker groups break into Local 9999's computers and deep six them. Reveals the last scene's Union Membership Dues spending.

— 34 —

Disclosed Duties: Admiral Reid's duty assignments are revealed to the press. Reveal last scene's assignments to the Admiral's Public Affairs Officers.

— 35 —