After Joseph rose to a position of power in Pharaoh's palace, he was able to bring his entire family (seventy people) into the land of Egypt. The original seventy prospered and multiplied. In fact, their numbers grew so much that the Egyptian government began to fear them. To put a stop to their growth, Pharaoh enslaved the Hebrews and commanded that all Hebrew baby boys be killed.

At this point in history Moses was born. His mother attempted to conceal him. But when she could no longer hide him, she wove a basket and set him afloat in the river, where Pharaoh's daughter found him. Pharaoh's daughter adopted the child and raised him as royalty. And thus began God's plan of rescue and relocation for the Hebrew nation.

"Israel and Pharaoh

In chapter 1 [Exodus], history is greatly compressed. In a score of verses we are told of the national expansion (vs. 1-7), the cruel exaction (vs. 8-14), and the purposed extinction of Israel (vs. 15-22).

Divine providence and human perverseness are in conflict: God multiplying the Israelites, and Pharaoh trying to exterminate them; just as in our time the Divine and the diabolical are bidding for the souls of men; but these powers are not commensurate, as the issue shows.

Moses and God

In chapters 2:1 - 4:28 is put on record two-thirds of the life of one of the greatest men of all time, Moses, the Prince, the Shepherd, and the Deliverer.

Forty years in Egypt and forty years in Midian prepared him for forty years in the Wilderness. In the first period he saw his importance; in the second, he discovered his impotence; and in the third he witnessed God's omnipotence.

With the coming, preparation, discipline, and ministry of Moses the redemptive purpose was greatly advanced. His call was as definite as Abraham's, 430 years before, but it was to a very different task. Abraham's faith in God distinguished him, but Moses's distrust of himself is outstanding. When God called him, he offered five excuses in an attempt to evade the task....

But God met him at every point, promising His presence (3:12), His Name and covenant (3:14-22), His power (4:2-9), His enabling (4:11, 12), and His instruction (4:14-16).

Prayer

Pray for the children, w/your team before class, during the week.
Pray simple short prayers with the children.

Lesson Lg. Group

“Baby Moses”

Main Points:

- God is bigger and more powerful than the strongest person.
- God loves us more than anyone else – even our mommies and daddies – can you imagine that?!
- The King said that all baby boys had to die
- Moses’ mommy and daddy hid him in a basket. They knew God would take care of him.
- AMAZING - the King’s daughter found Moses and took care of him. Who do you think helped the King’s daughter to find him and then to want to take care of him? Yes, GOD!
- God takes care of His children

• Hand Activity

- Instructions: Use this hand activity to get the children settled down and ready to listen.

Let your hands go clap, clap, clap; (clap hands three times)

Let your fingers snap, snap, snap: (snap fingers three times)

Let your lips go very round, (make lips round)

But do not make a sound. (put index finger to lips)

Fold your hands and close each eye; (follow action indicated)

Take a breath... and softly sigh; (follow action indicated) Ah...

• Playdough Families

- Instructions: Use playdough to make babies, mommies and daddies. Talk about how much mommies and daddies love their babies. Tell the children that God loves babies even more than their mommies and daddies. God saved a baby from a bad king.

• Music

- Song – Itty Bitty Moses[1]by Len
- Instructions: Sing the following words to the tune of The Itsy Bitsy Spider.

Itty bitty Moses was crying in his room,
Then came his mommy and sang a little tune.
"Hush little baby, the Lord will be your guide,
And no one will ever harm you,
for God is by your side."
Into a tiny basket, the baby Moses went,
Placed into the Nile, and to the palace sent.

Activities Lg. Group

"Hush little baby, the Lord will be your guide,
And no one will ever harm you,
for God is by your side."

Lovely Pharaoh's daughter saw Moses in the Nile,
Picked him up and loved him, raised him as her child.

"Hush little baby, the Lord will be your guide,
And no one will ever harm you,
for God is by your side."

Baby Moses Rhyme[1]

Look up and down the river
He's floating in a basket
(Hand to brow; looking)
(Cup your hands to make a basket)
Look up and down the river

He's floating in a basket
Look up and down the river
A baby in a basket
To see what you can see
Is all that we can see

A little tiny baby
God cared for baby Moses
(Pretend to rock a baby)
(Pretend to rock a baby)
A little tiny baby

God cared for baby Moses
A little tiny baby
God cared for baby Moses
Is all that we can see
And God will care for me (Point to self)
