

Dwell Community Church
Volunteer Household Services Release

For All Applicable Users of Service Assistance

The undersigned named party(ies) understand that agreement to allow for services to be rendered by or through Dwell Community Church (“Dwell” herein and its affiliates, could expose me/us to potential risk of injury and/or loss of personal property, even as all parties work to ensure no such issues happen.

As free-will users of services provided by volunteers through the church, I/we understand and assume these risks, and agree to hold Dwell, its volunteers or agents, harmless for losses. This hold-harmless agreement includes, but is not limited to, any medical or hospitalization costs (beyond any paid by health/medical insurance I/we may choose to carry), or personal property repair or replacement costs.

I/we agree not to pursue any action, including but not limited to legal action such as civil proceedings against Dwell or any of its agents, in the event such injury or circumstances described above come to pass.
