Summer in Hokkaido

Summer in Hokkaido is a veritable eden of culinary delights, exquisite experiences and endless adventures. The snow melts and the landscape is transformed in what seems like an instant from winter white to lush, saturated green. Rolling mountain ranges descend into the sea towards the west, farmland stretches on endlessly, crystal clear lakes play host to summer fun and fields of delicate flowers are aroused from their slumber. This is your playground. This is where you can make your dreams come true.

A Focus on Food

Hokkaido revolves around food during the summer months. The fertile farmlands and bountiful seas are responsible for some of the most delectable produce in Japan. Marry this spectacular fare with the best culinary minds from around the world and you get sizzling results. Chefs draw inspiration from the surrounding landscape and create brilliant dishes with seasonal, fresh picked produce. 'Farm to Table' is nothing new in Hokkaido. So follow your tongue around this mecca of flavour.
