FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (September 8, 2025) – Ensemble Arts Philly, in association with TPR., presents award-winning gospel artists Tasha Cobbs Leonard and Naomi Raine at the Miller Theater on October 25, 2025, at 7:00 p.m.

Join powerhouse duo Tasha Cobbs Leonard and Naomi Raine for an unforgettable live concert experience this fall and be reminded that God’s promises are already at work. Hear favorites like Leonard’s “Break Every Chain,” “You Know My Name,” and new songs from her album

TASHA, along with Raine's "No Longer Bound," "The Story I'll Tell," and more. Special guests Dr. Jackie Greene and Kobe Campbell will add powerful moments of encouragement and inspiration throughout the worship experience. Whether you're seeking restoration, breakthrough, or just want to worship with thousands of others, this night was made for you.

"Ensemble Arts Philly's venues are vibrant spaces where art, culture, and community intersect, onstage and off, where all are welcome to celebrate and dialogue together," said Frances Egler, Vice President of Theatrical Programming and Presentations. "In this one-night-only experience, our local faith communities are invited for an evening of worship and inspiration, brought to life through the unique power of music."

Tasha Cobbs Leonard has built her career on larger-than-life performances and powerhouse vocals that call us to honor and celebrate God in all his power and glory. A pastor's daughter born and raised in Georgia, Leonard first emerged to widespread acclaim with her breakout 2013 release, Grace, which garnered a Grammy® Award, three Doves, and three Stellar Awards on the strength of its chart-topping, platinum-selling lead single, "Break Every Chain." In the years that followed, Leonard would go on to establish herself as a genuine "gospel sensation" (NPR), racking up more than two billion streams across platforms, landing three more #1 singles and five #1 albums, performing with everyone from Common and Nicki Minaj to Ne-Yo and Ciara, and making national television appearances on Good Morning America, CNN's Fourth of July, BET's Black Girls Rock, CBC's A Day Of Healing, and The Super Bowl Gospel Celebration.

Naomi Raine is down-to-earth, a fun-loving wife and mom of three, Apryl, Kayden, and Savion. When she isn't busy being a secret chef, she's serving as a Worship Pastor at Fresh Start Christian Center in Mount Vernon, NY, and nurturing the gifts in others through her indie record label, The Bridge Collective. Raine is passionate about making space for other creatives with similar goals. Whether that be through mentorship or friendship, her commitment is to helping their vision become reality. Above all, Raine's greatest desire is that God would be glorified – not just through her music, but through her everyday life.
