PHILADELPHIA, PA – August 29, 2024 – Former First Lady, Senator from New York, and Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton has added Philadelphia to her Fall tour of the United States at the Academy of Music on October 10, 2024, at 7:00 p.m., presented in association with Ensemble Arts Philly. At this event, Secretary Clinton and a moderator will take the audience on a journey of unvarnished exchanges on politics, democracy, the threats we face, as well as friendship, aging, marriage, and how we can all work together to shape a future to be proud of.

The New York Times best-selling author and GRAMMY-award winner's new book, Something Lost, Something Gained: Reflections on Life, Love, and Liberty will be released by Simon & Schuster on September 17th, 2024.

"I'm so excited to add Philadelphia to my Fall tour. I hope you can join me for wide-ranging conversations that go behind the scenes and include never-before told stories," says Secretary Clinton. "We'll discuss the state of our politics and creating the future we want for our children and grandchildren and, most of all, have some fun while we're at it!"

Produced by Chicago based Innovation Arts and Entertainment, Atlanta, Detroit, Hartford, Houston, Tampa, Durham, Portland, Newark, Philadelphia, and Los Angeles join Chicago, San Francisco, Boston, Seattle, and Washington DC on Secretary Clinton's first tour of the U.S. since 2019.

Tickets are on sale now. Tickets for the Philadelphia engagement can be purchased by calling 215-893-1999 or online at www.ensembleartsphilly.org. In-person ticket sales can be conducted daily from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. at the Academy of Music Box Office, located at 240 S. Broad Street.
