This lively stage show is designed especially for kids ages 2 to 7. The show features Blippi and his best friend, Meekah, along with their singing and dancing buddies and live musicians. Together, they will explore what makes music, including sounds, rhythms, and instruments, through all of Blippi’s best hits. The audience is encouraged to get out of their seats and move to the music.

“Whether we’re reaching young people through performances like this one, or through our free and reduced cost programs like student concerts, open rehearsals, and hands on learning across jazz and Broadway,” said Frances Egler, Vice President of Theatrical Programming and Presentations. “Blippi’s one-night visit is just one of the many exciting highlights in our Family Discovery Series, a lineup full of offerings designed to inspire curiosity and joy in the next generation of artists and audience members while fostering togetherness for everyone in attendance, regardless of age.”

Blippi inspires curiosity in preschoolers around the world by creating content and experiences that are relatable, accessible, and make learning fun. Blippi has become a worldwide sensation with more than one billion monthly views across platforms including Netflix, HBO Max, Cartoonito, Sky, Amazon, and YouTube, and garnered millions of fans around the world.
