

Hezekiah Walker a renowned gospel singer, songwriter, and pastor, born on December 24th in the Fort Greene section of Brooklyn, New York. He launched his musical career in the late 1980s by founding the Love Fellowship Choir. Over the years, he has released more than a dozen albums, many of which have achieved gold and platinum certification.

Known for his lively and contemporary sound, Walker's music blends gospel with elements of R&B, jazz, and hip-hop. His powerful vocals and uplifting lyrics celebrate faith, hope, and God's love. Some of his most popular songs include "Souled Out," "Grateful," "Every Praise," and "Better."

Beyond his musical achievements, Hezekiah Walker is a respected pastor and spiritual leader. He is the Presiding Bishop of the Covenant Keepers International Alliance and is actively involved in promoting education and social justice within his community.

Throughout his illustrious career, Walker has earned numerous awards, including multiple Grammys, Dove Awards, Stellar Awards, etc. He continues to inspire audiences worldwide through his music and ministry, solidifying his status as one of the most influential figures in contemporary gospel music.

In addition to his artistic and spiritual work, Walker is dedicated to philanthropy, particularly in affordable housing initiatives. He partnered with the City of New York to develop HezHouse Apartments, a 10-story residential building in East New York, Brooklyn, featuring 235 units, 60% of which are supportive housing. This project aims to create a safe, vibrant community that reflects his roots and commitment to giving back to his neighborhood.
