WHEELCHAIR USER

BOOKING TICKETS

When booking please advise box office staff of your requirements so that they can give the best possible advice on your own access needs. For wheelchair users we advise seating in the Dress Circle. This is due to the level's step free access. Apart from the access seating area all seating is up or down shallow steps however there are handrails.

LIMITED MOBILITY

When booking please advise box office staff of your requirements so that they can give the best possible advice on your own access needs. For patrons with limited mobility we advise seating in the Dress Circle or Stalls.

The Dress Circle benefits from step free access whereas the Stalls has at least one flight of stairs down from street level, this is due to the theatre being built on the banks down to the river Thames. In the Dress Circle all seating, apart from the access seating area, is up or down shallow steps however there are handrails. The stalls conversely benefits from no steps inside the auditorium.

Please note: Step free toilet access in the Dress Circle. Male patrons toilet in the stalls require one flight of stairs.
