

Going to an Event

Page 1 of 4

ATG
ENTERTAINMENT

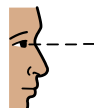

Going to an event.

Remember your ticket.

Make your way to the venue.

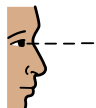

When you arrive at the venue you will see lots of people.

A team member will scan your ticket.

Security may search your bag.

Check Your ticket for your seat number.

You can ask a team member for help.

Widgit Symbols © Widgit Software Ltd 2002-2024 www.widgit.com
Created by Widgit in partnership with ATG Entertainment.
www.atgtickets.com

Developed from a previous resource for My First Ballet: Coppélia presented by English National Ballet and English National Ballet
School, supported by the Cultural Institute, King's College London.

Going to an Event

Page 2 of 4

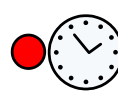

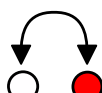

You may be able to buy a programme inside the venue.

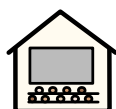

You may be able to read about the show in the programme.

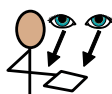

You can go to the toilet before the show.

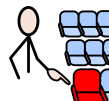

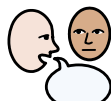

You can buy a drink or an ice cream before the show.

The venue will announce when the show is starting.

Show the team member your ticket.

The team member will tell you where to sit.

The audience will be excited and noisy.

Going to an Event

Page 3 of 4

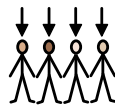

ATG
ENTERTAINMENT

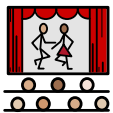

Sit and wait for the show to start.

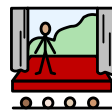

The lights will go dark.

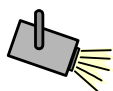

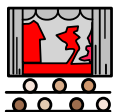

People will try to be quiet so everyone can hear.

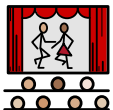

The show will begin.

You will see performers on stage.

The scenery and lighting will change during the show.

The show can be noisy.

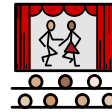

There might be music, flashing lights and special effects.

Going to an Event

Page 4 of 4

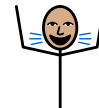

The audience will clap and cheer during the show.

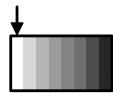

You can clap and cheer if you want to.

At the end of the show the audience will clap and cheer.

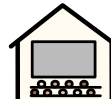

You can clap and cheer.

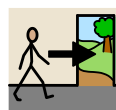

The lights will come up.

Lots of people will leave their seats.

There will be lots of people leaving the venue.

You can leave your seat and go to the exit.

