Don't miss this hilarious new espionage comedy from the team behind The Play That Goes Wrong!

When a rogue agent steals a secret document from MI6, American and Soviet spies descend on the Piccadilly Hotel in London, desperate to track the turncoat down. Meanwhile, next door, a failed actor is preparing for the role of his life and a young couple are trying to have a relaxing holiday. However, that's not as easy as you think when the fate of the world is being decided in the next room.

This wildly theatrical and side-splitting spy comedy is sure to inspire the theatre and comedy makers of the future. Displaying a variety of theatrical techniques alongside the essential principles of comedy, this hilarious new offering is bound to have your class laughing in their seats.
