

MARKET NEWS

Dallas Market Center announces designer programming, debuts

CLODAGH, BARCLAY BUTERA, ADAM GLASSMAN, SCOTT KRAVET AMONG GUESTS

DALLAS MARKET CENTER announced new showroom debuts and events taking place during the June Total Home and Gift Market, which takes place concurrently with Lightovation — Dallas International Lighting Show (June 20-23), Dallas Total Housewares & Gourmet Market (June 20-26), The Temps at Total Home & Gift Market (June 20-24), and International Folk Art Market (June 20-24).

In the World Trade Center, Blue Ocean Traders will debut its new showroom, WTC 542. In Light + Design on Ten, InStyle Gallery moves in and Ollier Distributors debuts. Allaf Oriental Rugs has a new home in WTC 521F.

In the Interior Home + Design Center, Global Views and Studio A Home will open an expansive new space in IHDC 1D209, and American Leather by Contempo Designs will cut the ribbon on a new showroom, IHDC 1D205. Inside The Gallery at IHDC, Atelier Home, Beyond Borders, Peacock Alley, and Lantern & Scroll debut new spaces. The Botanical Mix, IHDC 1D110, 1D408, will also expand into a new space.

In the Temps, the Home Temps on WTC 6 welcomes home accents, lighting, and rug companies including Nashville Rug Gallery. Inside Market Hall home décor companies will deliver a variety of collections with additional temps on Trade Mart 1, World Trade Center 12 and 13.

On Wednesday, June 20 at 10:30 a.m., designer and author Clodagh will present Wellness by Design, discussing the tenets of integrative medicine and how she incorporates modalities such as chromotherapy and biophilia in her global projects. The conversation will be followed by a book signing in the Erdos + Ko showroom.

Thursday, June 21 at 2 p.m., Barclay Butera will present A Body of Work: A Lifetime of Dreams, a discussion of how his style has evolved over the years. The presentation will be followed by a Mix & Mingle in Designer's Patio showroom.

Adam Glassman, creative director of O, The Oprah Magazine, will lead a panel discussion on Friday, June 22.

Interior designer Shay Geyer will launch her permanent botanical collection for The Botanical Mix at 5 p.m. Thursday, June 21, in The Botanical Mix showroom.

Several panels will feature discussions on design-industry topics:

- Mariska Meijers, Daniel Germani, Glen Peloso and Toma Clark Haines present Global Design Inspiration, Diva Style on Wednesday, June 20.
- Steven Moore, Toma Clark Haines and Kristi Hopper will discuss Living the Life of Your Dreams — Traveling with An- tiques on Thursday, June 21.

- Shay Geyer and Dann Foley will share Texas Style Meets Palm Springs on Friday, June 22.
- Saxon Henry, Scott Kravet, Aviva Stanoff and Tamara Matthews Stephenson will host a discussion called A Grand Tour of Textiles: Past, Present & Future on Friday, June 22, sharing their favorite discoveries past and present, and predicting what they see for the future.

Retailers and designers may see curated vignettes from eight emerging design students at Color My World: A Student Vignette Challenge, presented by IDS in IHDC 1 every day of market. The students' work will be critiqued by 10 designers, with judging to take place June 21, and a reception for the winning team on June 23.

DMCTV, the live broadcast platform for news from Dallas Market Center, returns in June. DMCTV Live at 9 will take place at 9 a.m. Wednesday and Friday at the Trade Mart Koi Pond, and Thursday at the IHDC front reception with special guests and segments previewing market events, trends, personalities, and the latest market news. Live at 9 will be broadcast across campus, via Facebook Live, and online at dallasmarketcenter.com/dmctv. ■

Dallas Design Week draws more than 800

APRIL'S INAUGURAL DALLAS DESIGN Week welcomed more than 800 members of the design community to campus, according to Dallas Market Center officials.

The week's events included the "Dine + Design" education and networking luncheon, which was attended by 500 members of the design community and featured a CEU-certified presentation with designer Drew McGukin, Julia Molloy of BOLD Summit, and Nick May of The Chaise Lounge.

Additional events included BOLD-Just Logistics, a two-

Panelists share tips at "Elevating Your Brand: A Conversation for Designers."

day workshop on billing, branding, efficiency, and up-leveling client bases; and "Elevating Your Brand: A Conversation for Designers," which brought together more than 100 designers to discuss brand awareness, media, finding the right clientele through strategic marketing and other issues. "Interior Design Meets Real Estate" explored the synergistic potential between interior design and real estate with Pierce Allman, Erin Mathews of real estate firm Allie Beth Allman, and designer Robin Baron.

In-Detail hosted a social media roundtable with Nikki Nuckols of Click & Co. and Ginger Curtis of Urbanology Designs.

The final evening featured "Gatherings at the Gallery: Decadent Designs." Guests enjoyed light bites, the Dallas String Quartet and signature cocktails while perusing The Gallery at the Interior Home + Design Center. ■