Warranty

Direct Online Services LTD ("Direct Online Services") provides to consumer-end users to whom it has sold the sink(s) a standard limited warranty subject to the conditions set out in this warranty (the "Warranty").

This warranty does not apply to "professional end user" meaning any person who uses sinks in the course of its business, trade, or professional activities. This also includes any natural person who acts in the context of its business, trade or profession where the law allows. Anything beyond this is considered as a "consumer end user" (hereinafter: "Consumer"). This Warranty is valid for Consumers who legally own the sink.

Consumer rights

This Warranty is the sole and exclusive form of guarantee on the sinks supplied by Direct Online Services to the consumer. This warranty is a voluntary factory warranty and includes rights on top of the legal rights consumers enjoy under applicable law regarding the purchase of goods and cannot limit that legal warranty under applicable law. It does not replace the guarantee offered by seller and any right of free remedies that the seller may need to provide pursuant to law.

10-year guarantee

Direct Online Services guarantees that the sink is free from manufacturing defects for a period of 10 years after the date of the first purchase of the sink by the original Consumer (hereinafter: "Original Purchase Date"). Any claim or claim made in the context of this Warranty outside the aforementioned warranty period will not be accepted.

Activation

The Warranty is valid only if the Consumer has registered the sink no later than 12 months from the Original Purchase Date on the "Register your sink" section by consulting the website mentioned in the documentation. At the end of the registration, the Consumer will receive by e-mail, or other equivalent means, a communication confirming the activation of the Warranty on its sink, which the Consumer will need to keep together with the purchase document (invoice, tax receipt or receipt), which shows the sink and the Original Purchase Date.

If the Consumer prefers to upgrade to a higher specification sink, Direct Online Services will charge the difference between the like-for-like replacement price and the requested replacement sink.

The Warranty does not provide, in the event of sending a replacement sink, expenses related to the transport, collection and removal of the defective sink, its disposal and the installation of the replacement sink, which will be the sole responsibility of the consumer. The repaired or replaced sink is subject to the remaining warranty period of the original sink or a longer period if imposed by mandatory national law.
