Elmhurst Art Museum announces the return of Art in Wilder Park to the heart of Elmhurst this spring. Art in Wilder Park features over 125 exhibitors including local artists, food vendors, a designated Kids Court for family activities, and more. The free-to-the-public event regularly attracts over 8,000 to the museum campus and takes place May 6-7, from 10 am to 5 pm, at 175 S. Cottage Hill Ave in Elmhurst.

The highly anticipated juried festival Art in Wilder Park features a variety of artisans selling one-of-a-kind jewelry, paintings, sculptures, ceramics, prints, fiber arts, and mouth watering treats from local food vendors. For the 26th annual Art in Wilder Park, Elmhurst Art Museum presents a newly commissioned public art installation Superheroes in Wilder Park featuring life-sized superhero sculptures by area artists and youth groups. The installation is a bold preview of the museum's summer blockbuster show Marvelocity: The Art of Alex Ross (May 28 to August 20, 2023) that features work by one of the greatest artists in the field of comic books.

“The Elmhurst Art Museum is excited to expand Art in Wilder Park with more exhibiting artists from across the Midwest and attract new audiences with a new ‘super’ public art installation this year,” said John McKinnon, Executive Director of the Elmhurst Art Museum.
