1987 DALLAS WHITE ROCK MARATHON

at Texas Instruments are helping our customers win the race to market with better products.

e say it every year, but, by most accounts (and in spite of some damp and foggy weather), the eighteenth annual running of the Dallas White Rock Marathon was the best ever.

The 1987 race was again typical of what "The Rock" is all about—a well-managed race for runners of all abilities, entirely organized by a dedicated group of 1,300+ volunteers. We have no paid staff and we offer no prize money, but year after year, the national running magazines rank the Dallas White Rock Marathon among the top marathons in the country. The February '88 issue of Runner's World again selected DWRM in the top 20 marathons in the nation stating, "They make use of their resources to stage exciting, runner-centered events."

Much of the thanks for the high quality of the race goes to our 1987 sponsors: Texas Instruments, Adelstein lewelers, T.G.I. Friday's, Alexander & Alexander and Mass Mutual, and to our 14 aid station sponsors and crews. Their assistance has been invaluable to race management and to you, the runners who benefited from their unflagging support.

Whether you completed your first marathon at The Rock this year, set a P.R. for yourself, or simply 'stayed alive' for the entire race, we thank you for choosing to run The Rock with us. You're the reason we're here every year, and we'll see you at the Nineteenth Annual Dallas White Rock Marathon— Sunday, December 4, 1988!

Marathon Board President Donald Key and Race Director Bob Hancook reflect on the success of the 1987 Dallas White Rock Marathon and extend their appreciation to runners across the country who return to Dallas each December to 'RUN THE ROCK.'

ike Moloto and Charlene Soby came to the 18th edition of the Dallas White Rock Marathon with basically the same idea—to run well and finish without any physical damage.

Sort of an extended test drive, as it were.

Neither came to Dallas with the intent of winning.

Yet, that is what they both did.

Moloto was content to play followthe-leader in this, his first wire-to-wire attempt at the distance. Stick with the guys who had been there before, see what they did, how they handled themselves. He would hang tough, run as well as he could, and maybe finish in the top five. But win? That wasn't in the plans.

Yet that's what happened as the 27-year-old South African, who runs for the Abilene Christian University track team, stayed with the front-runners until they fell back or dropped out. Suddenly, he found himself out front and alone. He stayed that way until the finish.

Moloto crossed the finish line in 2 hours, 22 minutes, 42 seconds. That was two minutes ahead of his nearest competition, J.P. Worcester of Wakeeney, Kansas. Filomento Apodaca of Las Cruces, N.M., who also was running his first marathon, was third in 2:29:01.

"I never thought about winning," said Moloto, who became the first black to win The Rock. "My goal was to run between 2:14 and 2:16."

Either of those times would have been good enough to win this race, but with no one else around to challenge him, his 2:22:42 was good enough.

That no one else was around was surprising, especially considering the quality of the runners on hand.

Ed Swiatocha had won the previous two Dallas White Rock Marathons and was a good bet to win his third. But Swiatocha developed problems early and was never in contention. He dropped out at 8½ miles.

In the meantime, Moloto was attempting to track down Apodaca, who had made a move at the ninth mile as the route turned off Mockingbird onto Williamson as it approached White Rock Lake.

Moloto didn't know that Apodaca was a rookie at this long-distance business as well. As far as he was concerned, Apodaca was the front-runner, and, therefore, someone to be followed.

"I thought I would go with him because he probably would be the winner," Moloto said. "I was looking for someone to take the lead so I could follow. I thought he was an experienced runner."

By halfway, which Moloto passed in 1:09:28, Apodaca was in second and struggling to stay close.

"My feet were killing me," Apodaca said. "I had blisters on both feet by the half-marathon, and my shoes were bloody red. I was just trying to hold on."

He did manage to hold on until 15 miles, but that's when Moloto said goodbye with a 5:21 mile that left no question as to who would win this race.

"The last four miles was when I was confident I would win," Moloto said.

Soby never envisioned she would take home first-place honors when she flew down from Chicago to run The Rock. In fact, she was content running third behind Ann Bond and Jaime Leshansky until 20 miles. That's when the two front-runners decided to call it a day. Both said they had entered with the intention of running only 20 miles in preparation for other marathons.

Suddenly, the 36-year-old energy banker found herself securely in the lead.

"It was strange because all of a sudden I went from third place to first place," said Soby, who came home in 2:55:45.

"At one point—8 to 10 miles—I passed a woman, and that put me in third," Soby said. "Once I found out I was in third, my goal was just to maintain that position. Then the other two women dropped out, and I was in first place."

"At that point, I started to rummage through my mind for all the aches and pains I'd incurred on all those training runs, wondering which one was going to jump up and do me in."

Soby said that when she arrived in Dallas, she looked over the times from previous years and determined that if she ran well, she could finish in the top five.

Soby, who has a personal best of 2:53:45, entered The Rock because she'd dropped out of two previous marathons that fall.

"I trained for and ran in Minneapolis (Twin Cities) in October," she said. "It was 24 degrees and I dropped out. Then I tried Columbus (Bank One) and ran into 20-mph winds, so I dropped out. I told myself I would give myself three shots at trying to qualify. I figured three strikes and I'm out, so I was determined to finish today."

Finishing behind Soby was Cathy Duncan of Houston in 3:01:10 and Debbie Peebles of Mineola, Texas, in 3:04:11.

Robert Abbott of Plano continued his dominance in the Masters division, taking his third straight title in 2:34:20. Joyce Taylor of Gurdon, Arkansas, was the women's Masters winner in 3:17:38. Jerry Terry of Dallas was the wheelchair winner in 2:32:22 and Victor Nava of Monterrey, Mexico, was the first blind runner to finish in 3:05:28.

Congratulations to Mike Moloto 1st overall finisher.

Congratulations to Charlene Soby 1st female finisher.

'Twas the night before White Rock and all through Big D Not a runner was stirring—they were resting, you see. In the morning the streets would be filled once again With marathon runners—three thousand of them.

A big weekend was planned for the runners and friends And lots of activities for them to attend. An Expo was held to liven up Saturday With health information and vendor displays.

On Saturday evening we all had a treat Spaghetti for carbo-loading—all you could eat. 900 runners all gathered together Discussing race plans and, as always, the weather.

The first White Rock style show was a real highlight To Luke's you should go for shoes, shorts or tights. If being in fashion should be to your liking There is wild attire for running, swimming and biking.

Dr. Cooper addressed us, the aerobics guru
He said to keep running but eat healthily, too.
Relating numerical data, health facts and even a joke
Dr. Cooper said, "Look—there is no cigarette smoke!"

Johnny Kelley came to Dallas again this year At eighty years young he is Boston's dear. He spoke to the runners and gave inspiration He sang "Young at Heart" and created a sensation.

Roger Staubach honored coach Robert Vaughan

A few words from the race director and the runners were gone.

To go to bed early and prepare for the race

Perhaps lacing up a new White Rock shoelace.

It was too humid and warm as the runners got started But the aid stations kept them from being downhearted. Manned by hundreds and hundreds of great volunteers At each stop the runners got lots of fresh cheers.

The runners all voted on which one was best But had nothing but praise for all of the rest. TI's Western Junction had horses and wagons The Easy Rider Alexander crew kept the runners from dragging.

After the race was over and done
The awards banquet was lots of fun.
Twelve thousand taco shells and three quarter tons of meat
T.G.I. Friday's spread couldn't be beat.

Runners and friends enjoyed this repast
While KLIF concluded its radio broadcast.
Trophies were given to runners who speeded
But there is thanks from Dallas to all who competed.

he Dallas White Rock Marathon course starts and ends at Dallas City Hall. After passing through some of the old and new areas of the downtown area, the course proceeds up Turtle Creek Boulevard and through the Township of Highland Park. It then goes out Mockingbird Lane for the traditional loop around White Rock Lake, returning to City Hall through the scenic Lakewood area and historical Swiss Avenue. Fourteen fully staffed and equipped aid stations are spread at approximately two mile intervals along with fourteen bands to cheer the runners on.

The 1987 Dallas White Rock Marathon was certified by The Athletics Congress (TAC Certification Number TX 86078 KL), and is a qualifying event for the Boston Marathon.

Margaret Steenson, Irving Adelstien, Johnny Kelley & Annabelle Corboy (shown left to right). At 80 years young, this is Johnny's 5th consecutive year of participation. For Annabelle Corboy, it's a joy and challenge to keep running the DWRM where she was 1st female in the 1st running of 'THE ROCK' in 1971.

Bob Abbott (No. 47) en route to 3rd consecutive master's title.

he Dallas White Rock
Marathon Board of Trustees unanimously selected Robert Vaughan, a Dallas-based running coach and exercise physiology researcher, to be the recipient of the 3rd annual Award for Excellence.

The Award is sponsored by The Staubach Company and was personally given to Coach Vaughan by Roger Staubach, at the carbo dinner on Saturday evening, December 5, 1987, at the Dallas Hilton Hotel.

The Award for Excellence is given annually to an individual who has demonstrated one or more of the following attributes:

- Has made major contributions to the sport of running or to the Dallas running community.
- Has overcome significant physical impairments or personal tragedy to run.
- Has undergone a major lifestyle change through running.

- Has had a major impact on the lifestyle of others.
- Has achieved outstanding performance in running.
 The previous recipients of this award were Dr. Kenneth H. Cooper, and Dr. George Sheehan.

Robert is primarily being recognized for his many years of dedication to the sport of running and his unflagging efforts to seek excellence from every athlete he advises. Such elite athletes as Miki Hervey-Snell, Martha Sartain, Glenys Quick, Tammie Etienne, Francie Larrieu Smith, Mary Knisely, Joan Hansen, Sue Jackson, Deb & Fred Torneden, Mark Bishop and Geoff Moore have achieved their respective marks of excellence supported by Vaughan's coaching skills.

Although most of his efforts are centered around elite athletes, Vaughan never refuses to offer free training advise to any runner who asks. He started the Metroplex Striders Track Club with Terry Jessup in 1974 and has been the clubs' senior women's coach since its inception.

Vaughan was selected an Olympic Festival Coach 1980-81, coaching 25% of the finalists seeking to represent the USA in the female 3000M event at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles.

Primarily a track runner with a 48 second 440 and a 1:53.7 880, Vaughan ran three Dallas White Rock Marathons (1977-1979) to prepare for coaching this distance event. He improved his times from 2:53 to 2:34.

He is, as three-time Olympic gold medalist, Peter Snell said, "one of the most supremely dedicated individuals I've ever met".

Besides his coaching, Vaughan is seeking his Ph.D. in exercise physiology, working with Snell in an eliteathlete research program at the University of Texas Health Science Center.
