DEAR RUNNERS:

Happy 20th Anniversary, White Rock Marathon! Thank you, runners and volunteers, for honoring us with your participation again this year.

Our twentieth year couldn't have been better—ideal weather (40 at the start, with little wind), a larger field than the past few years (while other national marathons shrink in size), and world class runners among our volunteers (Francie Larrieu Smith and Mary Knisely, to name-drop a few who came out to support you “Rockers” rather than running themselves). As usual, the Dallas White Rock Marathon emphasized individual runners. We always will.

Twenty years ago, “The Rock” attracted 82 entrants. This year, 3,333 runners toed the mark, and again we were named one of the top marathons in the country. Twenty years ago, we were a “strictly Texas” race, but a few folks came all the way from Oklahoma and Arkansas to run. This year, marathoners came from 43 states and a handful of foreign countries. Again, volunteers came out of the woodwork.

Over the past twenty years, our reputation for being the best “small” marathon, catering to first-timers and real people, has spread. This year, for the first time ever, both our male and female winners were “foreigners”: Mexican Andres Perez was the overall winner; Canadian native Lisa Presedo topped the female entrants.

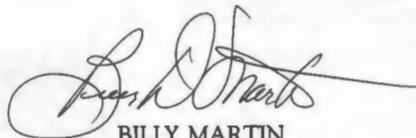

I guess that means we're big-time now. But I promise you'll never be able to tell it on race day. We're always here just for you. Few races promise such a huge cadre of enthusiastic volunteers—one for every 2.5 runners. But “The Rock” can, year after year.

Next year—our 21st—we “come of age.” Plan to join us. We promise to have some surprises, along with our same ol' reliability for being the greatest amateur marathon in the country.

Good running!

P.S. You should know that “The Rock” is among the luckiest of marathons in the country: we are wholly supported by the generosity of our major sponsors, Texas Instruments, American Airlines, Mass Mutual, and T.G.I. Friday's, along with dozens of other major benefactors listed on page 24 of this booklet. Please support each and every one of them with your patronage—they do it all for you!

Quality is a way of life for more than 75,000 Texas Instruments employees around the world.

Good companies worldwide are achieving ever-higher quality levels. So, today, it is the rate of improvement versus competition that determines quality leadership. Quality leadership, in turn, determines success in the marketplace.

Nowhere is this more true than at the leading edge of electronic technology — where Texas Instruments has performed since the dawn of the electronic revolution three decades ago.

That's why, at TI, quality is a total commitment — throughout every facet of our business, by every Tler. We have a commitment to total quality which involves every employee in more than 50 TI plants in 17 countries.

TI's numerous quality awards from customers and industry associations are testimony to our commitment to worldwide quality leadership.

Since inventing the integrated circuit 31 years ago, Texas Instruments has competed successfully against the world's toughest competition. World-class quality is key to continuing that success into the 21st Century. Our commitment to that end is absolute and total.

WINNING THE ROCK

By Robert Vernon

Andrea Perez crossing finish line in victory for 2nd year in a row.

It was the end of never-never land. In the 20 previous editions of the Dallas White Rock Marathon, no foreign-born runner had ever won the race twice and no non-American-born woman had ever finished first.

So much for tradition.

Defending champion Andres Espinosa Perez, 26, from Monclova, Coahuila, Mexico, won the men's title in 2 hours, 16 minutes, 19 seconds, only six seconds slower than his 1988 victory at The Rock.

On the distaff side, Lisa Presedo, 24, a native of London, Ontario, Canada, destroyed the field with a stunning 2:41:47 in her marathon debut. Presedo's time was the fastest winning time at The Rock since 1981, when Olympic marathoner Julie Brown set the event record by breezing through the old, flat, fast, two-loop course around White Rock Lake in 2:33:39.

Finishing behind Presedo were Mimi Corcoran of Menden, Mass., in a personal best 2:52:53, and Susie McAllister of Kearney, Neb., who ran 2:59:40. Cathy Duncan of Houston kept intact her string of five consecutive top-five finishes by placing fourth in 3:01:28.

Trailing Espinosa Perez were Jacob Bungei of Eldoret, Kenya, (2:21:12), Bob Jackson of Jal, N.M., (2:24:58) and Jeff Roth of Dallas (2:26:09).

Bob Gordon, 42, of Austin was the top men's Masters runner in 2:31:59, and Ingrid Cofield of Rowlett claimed the top women's Masters honors for the second straight year, running 3:20:48.

Rick Gore of Arlington, a two-time champion at The Rock, made it three by winning the wheelchair competition in 2:14:49. He defeated Danny Williams of Irving in one of the best wheelchair competitions ever seen at The Rock. Williams stayed close to Gore until 20 miles, but then slowed to a 2:16:16 finish.

As he did a year ago, Espinosa Perez proceeded to run away from the field of 3,333 entrants. John Tolbert of New York stayed close through the opening 5:26 mile, but a mile later, Perez had already taken the lead that would only grow larger and larger the rest of the way.

Five seconds, 10 seconds, 30 seconds, one minute. Eventually, Perez sprinted to an advantage of more than five minutes.

But in the 24th and 25th miles, where Espinosa Perez enjoyed his greatest margin, the champion also experienced some of his worst physical moments.

A cramp in his right leg caused Perez to slow from his 5:05 pace to a 5:17 for 24 miles, followed by a 5:26 25th.

"The 25th mile I started getting cramps," Perez said. "That 25th mile was the hardest."

Fortunately for Espinosa Perez, there was no one close enough to him to take advantage of the leader's woes. Bungei, a graduate assistant track coach at McNeese State in Lake Charles, La., was busy just trying to recover from the Lakewood hills.

"I just wanted to run good and finish good," said Bungei, a former All-America runner at Oral Roberts University.

Lisa Presedo running a strong steady pace to victory.

Even though it was her first marathon, Presedo, who lives in Baton Rouge, La., thought she might be able to win The Rock if she ran to the level of her training.

"I thought I could win," said Presedo, who ran from the front the entire way. "If I didn't win, I knew I'd be in the top five."

Gordon, the Masters winner, had run the Twin Cities Marathon seven weeks prior to running The Rock, and he was afraid it was too soon. But it worked out just fine.

"I've run 2:27:57, but this was the fastest time I've run as a Master," said Gordon, a pilot for American Trans Air.

Cofield, 41, won the women's Masters in 3:09:33 last year, but she has been slowed by leg problems lately.

"I'm having a lot of problems with my right leg," she said. "I need to see a doctor, but I wanted to run this race first."

BEST OF THE ROCK

by Steve Shopoff

Cross Country Club of Dallas founder Talmage Morrison started it all on March 6, 1971 when he sent 80 men and 2 women on their way in the inaugural White Rock Marathon. Although the event has a hard earned reputation as a "runner's race", providing each participant with a rewarding marathon experience, the Dallas White Rock Marathon attracted some excellent runners who have achieved outstanding results.

Here are some fast facts and highlights from the past twenty races.

Fastest Finisher

M: John Lodwick 2:12:18 (1982)
F: Julie Brown 2:33:39 (1981)

Joe Sheeran grabbed the fastest 2nd place time in 1982 with 2:15:11, Glenys Quick (2:35:23) and Kellie Cathey (2:38:25) followed Julie Brown in the 1981 finish with the second and third fastest women's times ever.

Fastest Masters

M: Robert Abbott 2:29:13
(1986-7th overall)
F: Mary Kennard 3:02:06
(1980-7th women)

Fastest 50+

M: Alex Ratelle 2:36:46
(1977 at age 53)
F: Mary Ann Miller 3:42:20
(1988 at age 52)

Youngest Finishers:

M: Clark Minton 4:22:41
Age 6 (1977)
F: Mary Joe Witherspoon 5:03:39
Age 9 (1982)

Oldest Finishers:

M: Carl Stroud 4:05:23
Age 73 (1981)
F: Burnis Hicks 5:30:27
Age 64 (1977)

Dick Granger ran a Boston Marathon qualifying time of 3:49:31 at the 1989 Rock. Dick is 72 years old and running strong. Uly Vlamides maintained his record as the only finisher of all 20 Dallas White Rock Marathons.

Congratulations, Dick and Uly!

Closest Races:

M: David Miley 2:16:12 (1981)
Juan Zetina 2:16:33
F: Marianne Pugh 2:56:55 (1977)
Penny DeMoss 2:56:58

Marianne and Penny engaged in a classic duel, never separated by more than a few strides the entire race, which came down to a dramatic sprint finish. In 1986, Jeff Roth overtook defending champion Ed Swiatocha at the 15 mile mark, only to be passed by Ed in the final mile.

As interest in long distance running blossomed in the late 1970's, the field grew rapidly from 300 in 1976 to over 2,600 for the 10th Anniversary Rock in 1979, and to 3,559 entrants in 1982. The Race had reached a critical juncture. Nationwide, marathoning had peaked and although a few big city races with prize money and TV coverage had flourished, many local and regional marathons folded.

However, the Rock had established a niche as a Runner's Race, and rather than jump on the prize money bandwagon, the race moved to a new course under the direction of Dan Millet in 1983.

Most Entrants:

1983: 3636 2851 finishers

Dick Granger, 72, qualifies for Boston.

The Rock not only endured, but continued to improve as the new downtown Dallas city hall start and finish allowed a scenic city-wide course and provided added convenience for the weekend of marathon activities. Over 30,000 runners have now completed the Rock! Each of the record 2,852 finishers in 1989 received a commemorative "20th Anniversary" medallion.

Talmage Morrison is proud of the event he started in 1971. He wanted to establish a first rate race that would serve as a focal point to the distance running activities of North Texas. Thanks to a dynamic group of sponsors, race organizers and volunteers, The Rock is rated as one of the top ten marathons in the country by Runner's World.

A Runner's Race... It's a tough reputation to live up to. It takes people like JoAnn and Jack Murdock, who five years ago developed the concept of aid station competition. Now, corporations and clubs eagerly sign up to help. They provide a large bundle of enthusiastic support, with banners, music, costumes and cheering... and they top it off by campaigning for votes at the Awards Banquet for the Top Aid Station title.

Highest completion rate:

1989: 85.6%

What makes the Rock a great race for runners? It's volunteers like Peggy Tibbits, head of the medical team; it's Margaret Steenson who handles the details for the pre-race dinner each year. It's Race Director, Bob Hancock, and his assistant, Billy Martin. They are the people that provide each of us a great time when we Run the Rock!

At The Dallas Agency, we insure more than lives.

Our clients are successful. They're on the move. But it takes more than success, alone, to take them where they want to go.

They need a life insurance program that can be the innovative core of their personal financial plan. A plan that can include the insurance, pension trusts, and annuities their success requires. Because it isn't enough for them to make money, they have to protect it and help it grow.

And that's where their Mass Mutual representative comes in with the expertise, commitment and professionalism that earns them this well-deserved recognition.

Lisa Presedo, who works as a clerk for the Louisiana State University police, was content running shorter distances, but when her husband, Pablo, decided to give the marathon a try, she decided to tag along.

An all-conference performer during her days on the LSU track team and a former all-Canada cross country runner, Lisa threw herself into marathon training. She and Pablo began training together back in June.

"Then he got injured, and I just kept on training," she said.

On race day, it was Lisa who was poised for victory. She bolted from the start and was never challenged the entire way.

During the race, Presedo said she never knew how far ahead she was, and that was fine with her.

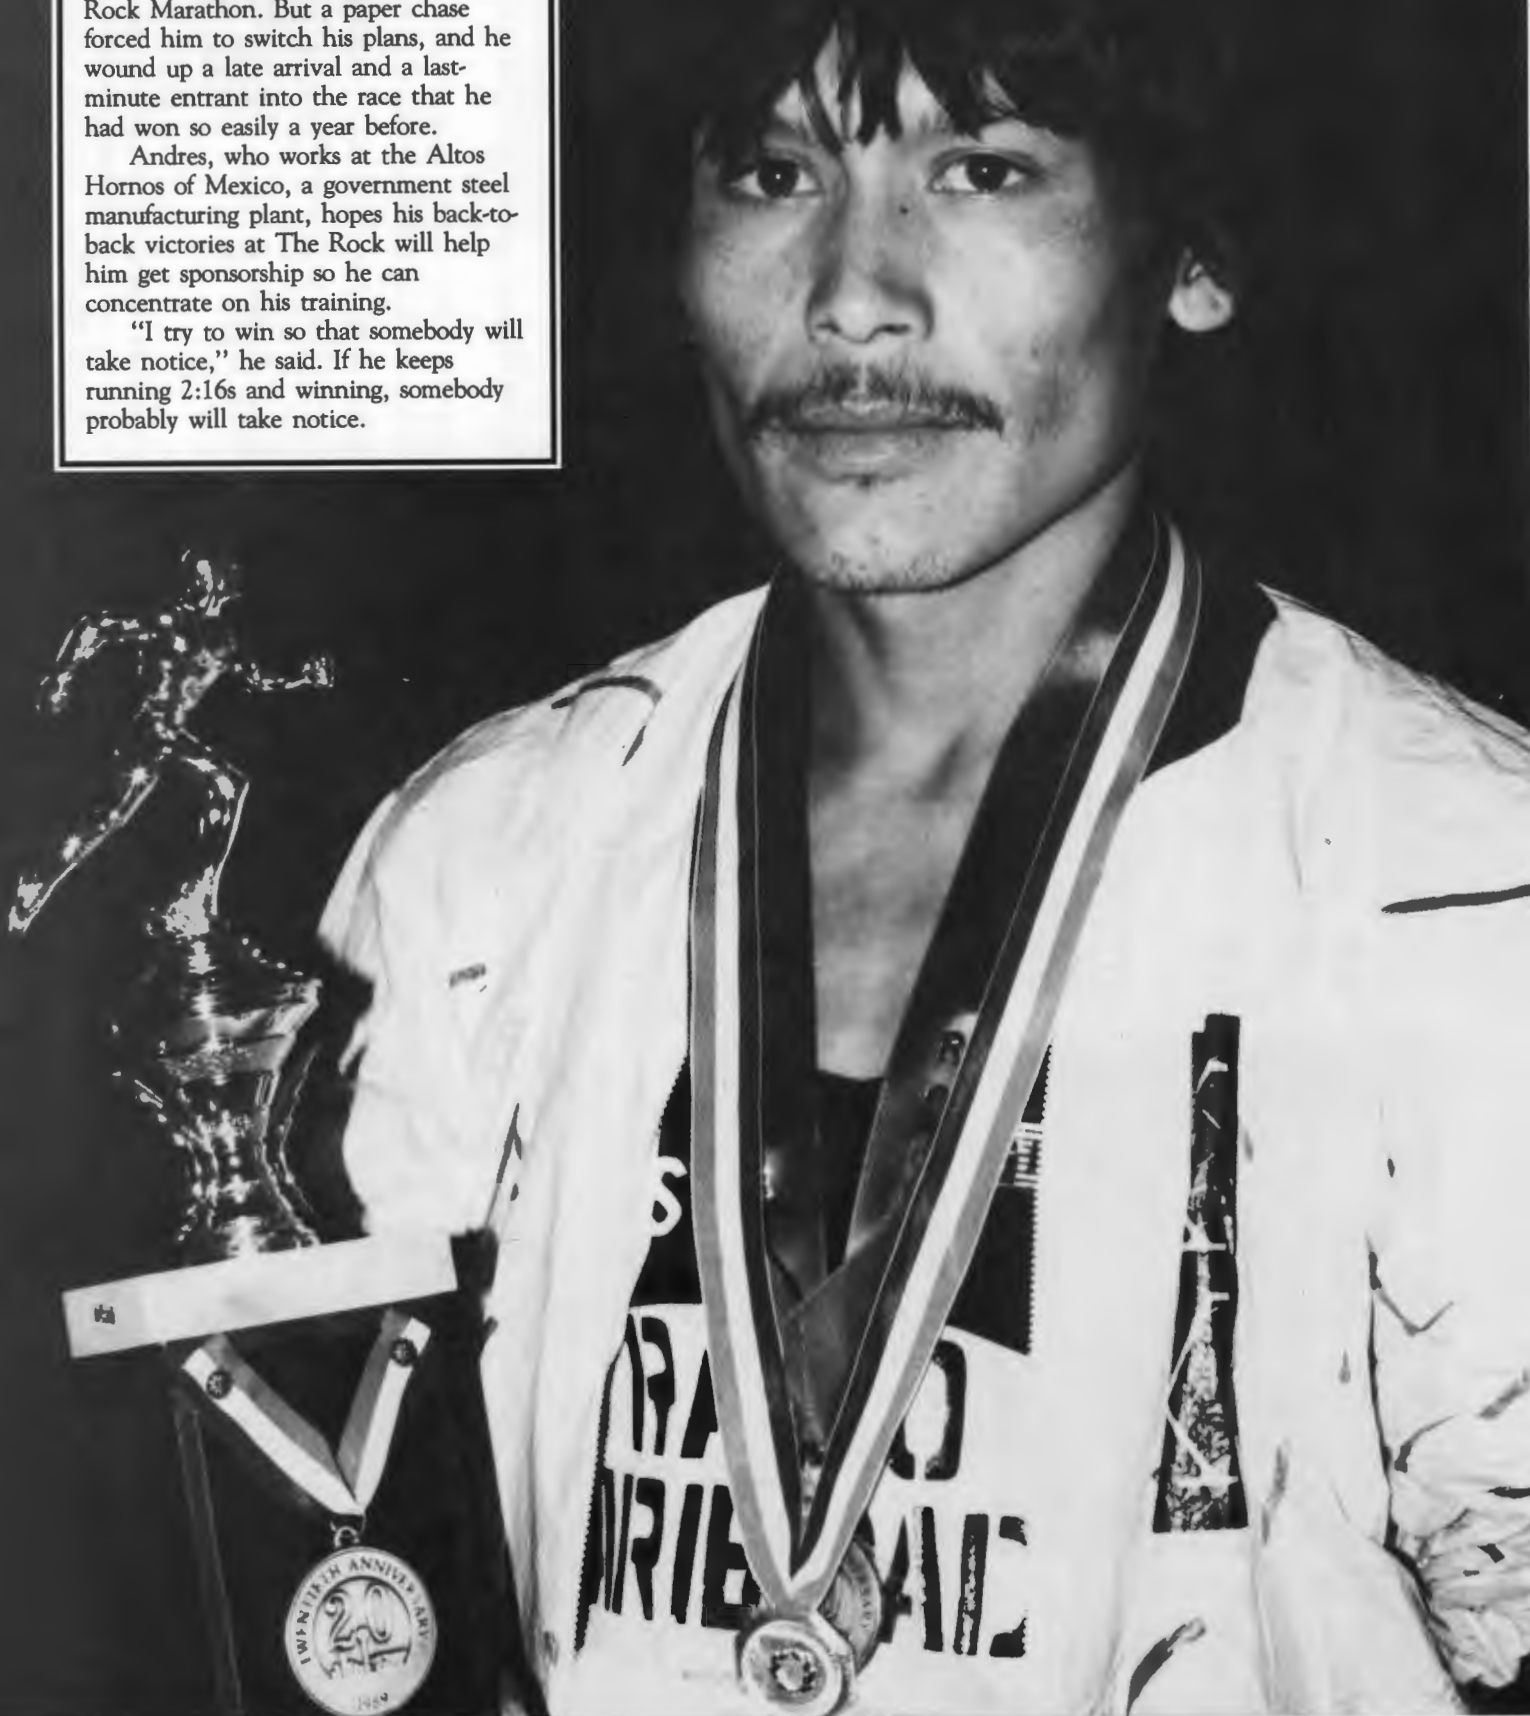

Lisa said she held back because she had never run a marathon before, and she kept waiting to hit the wall. But the wall never came, and Presedo believes she could have gone much faster.

Andres Espinosa Perez, who had not run a marathon since winning The Rock last year, came to Dallas with the intention of retaining the title. He knew he was in good shape after setting a personal best of 29 minutes, 45 seconds at a 10K the week before the marathon.

Espinosa Perez wanted to get to Dallas early in order to rest up for his title defense at the 1989 Dallas White Rock Marathon. But a paper chase forced him to switch his plans, and he wound up a late arrival and a last-minute entrant into the race that he had won so easily a year before.

Andres, who works at the Altos Hornos of Mexico, a government steel manufacturing plant, hopes his back-to-back victories at The Rock will help him get sponsorship so he can concentrate on his training.

"I try to win so that somebody will take notice," he said. If he keeps running 2:16s and winning, somebody probably will take notice.

WEEKEND HIGHLIGHTS

by Mike McAdams & Karen Austin

The White Rock Marathon is more than a race. It's a whole weekend of activities for runners and their guests.

FRIDAY—The Park Plaza downtown and the Sheraton Park Central in north Dallas welcome out of town runners who come to town early to enjoy the sights of Dallas. Luke's running store is hopping as runners get their packets and purchase last minute essentials.

SATURDAY—The runner's Expo at the Park Plaza has many booths with sports vendors and medical personnel. Nike, for the second year, would project your marathon finishing time from recent race results. Runners proudly sported new White Rock sweatshirts, running suits and jackets that they bought at the Expo. Saturday night's carbo dinner at the Park Plaza Hotel saw the demise of 125 pounds of salad, 450 pounds of spaghetti, 1800 rolls and 120 gallons of beverage (no, not just beer). The style show put on by Luke's showed the latest in athletic apparel and casual wear. Harry Cordellos brought down the house with his White Rock version of "It's A Small, Small World". The night's biggest hand went to Johnny Kelley, Boston's grand old man, who received the 1989 Award for Excellence from this year's inspiring speaker, Roger Staubach.

SUNDAY—Perfect weather is not a prerequisite, but we got it anyway. PRs abounded. Andres Perez's victory epitomizes what the White Rock Marathon is all about, a working man who likes to run, his time not far off the celebrated times of world class runners. The aid stations out-did themselves, with TI's Roaring 20s, A&A's Batman, Mass Mutual's Celebration and White Rock Athletic Club's Berlin Wall thrilling the runners and spectators alike. TGIF served a post-race feast at City Hall. Sixteen thousand tacos and 100 gallons of salsa were consumed. Eleven thousand pieces of fruit, and, of course, more beer topped off the meal. The crowning glory was a 20th anniversary cake that served 500. Awards were presented and all the runners returned home with memories of a special weekend. A real celebration!

THE WHITE ROCK MARATHON

(Tune of "It's A Small, Small World")

- CHORUS: It's a grand race after all,
to the Dallas City Hall
We will really have a ball
At the White Rock Marathon
- 1ST VERSE: It's a day of beauty, a day of fun
It's a day of glory for everyone
There are thrills, there are smiles over twenty-six miles
At the Dallas Marathon. (CHORUS)
- 2ND VERSE: When the race is over, we'll do our thing-as we celebrate we will laugh and sing
though we run til we're lame
We are glad that we came To the Dallas Marathon. (CHORUS)

Thanks to Harry Cordellos

AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

The Dallas White Rock Marathon Board of Trustees selected John A. "Johnny" Kelley to receive the Marathon's distinguished Award for Excellence.

This award, sponsored by The Staubach Company, is presented to an outstanding member of the running community who has demonstrated the positive effects of running on health and fitness through personal effort, determination, commitment and courage.

Previous recipients of this award were Dr. Kenneth H. Cooper, Dr. George Sheehan, Robert Vaughan, and Francie Larriue Smith.

Roger Staubach made the Award presentation at the carbo dinner Saturday evening, December 2, 1989, at the Park Plaza Hotel. He recognized Johnny as a legend in the world of sports, citing his many accomplishments.

Since 1928, Johnny has completed 55 Boston Marathons and is still running Boston at age 82! He won the Boston Marathon twice, took second place seven times and was a "top ten" finisher nineteen times. He also ran the Yonkers Marathon twenty-nine times, winning it twice. To date he has run in 120 marathons and 1500 road races.

Johnny was a member of three Olympic marathon teams, starting with the one in Berlin in 1936 that was attended by Adolf Hitler. He was the only American to finish the marathon in Berlin. In 1940, he was selected to attend the Olympics in Helsinki, Finland, but the games were cancelled due to the war. In 1948, he was again selected, at age 42, to represent the United States at the London Olympics, where he placed twenty-first.

He was twice the National AAU Marathon Champion and held seven other road race titles. He was the first road racer elected into the National Track and Field Hall of Fame in 1979, an honor traditionally reserved for athletes either deceased or retired five years. In 1981 he was given the Boston Press Photographers Association Sports Personality Award and in 1985 he won the Prestigious Abebe Bikila trophy awarded at the United Nations in recognition of his contributions to running.

Johnny and his wife of 32 years, Laura, live in East Dennis, Massachusetts where he runs daily on the nearby beaches of Cape Cod. In his free time, Johnny is an artist and his oil paintings of Cape Cod scenes are in high demand.

This year marks Johnny's seventh trip to Texas to participate in "The Rock." Each year he inspires marathon runners with the longevity of his accomplishments and even more with his spirit exemplified by his favorite song, Young at Heart. He is an Honorary Texan and will always be welcome by his many friends in the Lone Star State.
