DEAR RUNNERS

The Dallas White Rock Marathon Board of Trustees thanks you for participating in the 1996 Rock. With delightful weather and enthusiastic crowds a great day was had by all! We hope you had a good run, enjoyed yourself along the way, and perhaps even set a PR.

Once again, our men's winner hails from Mexico. Congratulations to Gregorio Romo for his victory. Shannon Compton, from Oklahoma City, took top female honors. First place wheelchair athlete was Alan Bleakney from Mason City, Iowa.

Clent Mericle, of Corpus Christi, successfully defended his Master's title. Our fastest female Master was Cheryl Grainger of Inglewood, Colorado, who was recognized as the 4th overall female.

The Marathon added a 5-person relay division in 1995. This year we added a 2-person team division and it took off! The relay grew from 51 teams last year to 316 teams in 1996! 1,054 relay runners participated in the event and brought with them new excitement and enthusiasm all along the course. Based on the feedback received, we expect the relay to continue its dramatic growth in 1997.

We improved our communication and response time to questions in several ways. First, our web site at http://www.livelifelife.com/the_rock was made more interactive. Second, the ever patient and helpful Doris Lafayette was always at the other end of the race hot line (214-528-2962) to answer your questions. And finally, our complete marathon results were up on the Internet at <http://home.navisoft.com/apple> race night by 7:00 pm.

The Marathon weekend would not be possible without our generous sponsors — American Airlines, Martin's Cocina, MassMutual, and Texas Commerce Bank — and our patrons, many who have supported The Rock for years and are recognized elsewhere in this publication.

And let's not forget the hundreds of volunteers, police, Cities of Dallas and Highland Park, medical personnel, Dallas Amateur Radio Club, 18 individual aid stations, and cheering family and friends that lined the course all in an effort to make this the best Rock yet!

The Dallas White Rock Marathon and Relays was proud to include and benefit "For The Love Of The Lake". This non-profit organization is dedicated to the preservation and enhancement of White Rock Lake. We thank them for the tremendous amount of time and effort they contributed to our event this year.

And last, but certainly not least, Thank YOU for running with us. You are why we are all out here and hope you enjoyed the race. We welcome any constructive comments you might have and look forward to seeing you on December 7, 1997 for the 28th running of the Dallas White Rock Marathon and Marathon Relays.

The sun is shining, the music is playing and the Runner's World pacers are displaying their goal pace signs directing participants where to take their mark for the 27th running of the Dallas White Rock Marathon. See page 35 for more details on the Runner's World pacers.

Picture perfect

The 26.2 mile course, mostly flat but with a few tough hills, begins and ends in Downtown Dallas. Along the way, runners pass through the wooded Turtle Creek area, prestigious Highland Park around White Rock Lake, through beautiful Lakewood, and the Swiss Avenue historical district.

William Moore

They weren't considered the pre-race favorites. Few in Dallas knew anything about Gregorio Romo of Zacatecas, Mexico or Shannon Compton of Bethany, Oklahoma, before they became the 1996 men's and women's White Rock Marathon champions. Romo, a 34-year-old electrician, finished in two hours, 30 minutes, 57 seconds – first among the approximately 2,800 who ran the full 26.2-mile course. He was more than 18 minutes off John Lodwick's marathon record (2:12:18), set in 1982. Romo was a most unlikely champion. He had not run in two years. He injured his knee after a 2:16, 11th-place finish at the 1994 Chicago Marathon. He didn't even start training until six weeks before White Rock. Officials with Dallas-based El Conejo Bus Lines invited Romo to run Dallas at their expense. Romo ran the race as a training event for the Austin Motorola Marathon in February. Compton, 27, a fifth-grade social studies teacher, led the women's division from start to finish. She clocked a 2:58:34, achieving her goal of breaking three hours to cap a successful fall racing season. She had just been named the Oklahoma Female Runner of the Year the day before The Rock. She had won the Oklahoma City's Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure in October, then ran a 1:21 half marathon three weeks later. She also ran The Tulsa Run 5K in 17:46. Her coach wondered at the wisdom of running a marathon after such a strong fall. He didn't want a disappointing time or finish to take away from her highlights. There were no disappointments. She achieved her goal and more. She knew she couldn't approach the women's marathon record, 2:33:39, set by Julie Brown in 1981. She never considered winning. "Heck, no. Are you kidding," she said. Especially after she had to stop three times and stretch out cramping muscles. Romo wasn't even the first to physically cross the finish line. Two relay-team runners beat him. William Moore, anchor of Luke's Open Male five-person team, finished in 2:15:20. The Larry's Shoes-New Balance men's masters five-person team clocked a 2:28:30. Similarly, the women's five-person open relay, Vanity Fair, anchored by Danielle Trelles, beat Compton to the finish line in 2:47:10. David Savage was the first Dallasite to finish the full event. He placed eighth overall in 2:40:15, just 12 seconds behind the masters champion, Clent Mericle of Corpus Christi. Mericle, 43, repeated as masters champ. The Overhead Door draftsman has been the masters champion three of the past four years. Savage said he was happy with his time considering he had not trained as hard as he has in years past. Placing eighth was nice but didn't mean much, he said. "It was kind of an off-year," he said of the field. "I've run a 2:35 and taken 59th here. I'd rather run a 2:37 and place 50th because time means more to me than place."

Slow times didn't matter to most of the marathon's near-record field, which enjoyed perfect weather. A cool sunny morning welcomed approximately 3,900 runners. It was a welcome change from the 19 degrees before the race started in 1995. The large field could be attributed in large part to the popularity of the relays. The marathon added a two-person division to the five-person relays it had inaugurated last year. Approximately 300 teams involving 1,000 runners participated this year.

The Dallas White Rock Marathon Rock Shop

The Rock Shop by George Eastes
Photos by Marty Evenson

The Rock Shop is an essential stop at the Dallas White Rock Marathon's Sports & Fitness Expo for runners who want to demonstrate their marathon accomplishments with running-related apparel, other clothing items and souvenirs. With The Rock's current year Tyvek jacket, always a sought-after memento of the race, or sweat shirts and pants, gloves and caps, along with sweaters, vests and jackets suitable for wearing anywhere, a runner can show pride in having "Run the Rock"

The Rock Shop's purpose has always been to support the Marathon, because its proceeds go into the race effort. Volunteers from the Dallas running community select and design the merchandise, then order, receive and store it until Marathon weekend. The sales staff for the Rock Shop are local runners who share with you the thrills and spills of training and racing and are willing to give a few hours to make the weekend a memorable success for all The

Mary and George Eastes

Rock's runners and supporters. For the past several years, Mary Eastes has been the primary organizer for The Rock Shop.

The Cross Country Club of Dallas, the largest of the Dallas area running clubs, has supported The Rock Shop over the years through the production of the Marathon's Tyvek jackets. In addition, many CCCD members work as marathon volunteers. Not only does the Club support the Marathon, it also provides a constant slate of activities for its members and other interested runners. Dallas White Rock Marathon appreciates the support shown by CCCD and its members.

So, as you viewed the merchandise at The Rock Shop this year, we hope you felt the interest and enthusiasm of its volunteer workers. The dollars you spent did not buy just a piece of Marathon memorabilia, they went into the costs of putting on the race, and we thank you for being willing to contribute your money along with a great deal of physical effort to the success of the Dallas White Rock Marathon.

The Dallas White Rock Marathon Benefits The Love of the Lake

by Paul Lake

When asked to pick their favorite part of the marathon course this year, race participants most popular response was "The Lake" This response supports the decision by the Dallas White Rock Marathon Board of Trustees to donate a portion of this years race proceeds to the Love of the Lake, a grassroots organization dedicated to maintaining the park land surrounding White Rock Lake

We are honored to be the recipient of funds from the Dallas White Rock Marathon. I believe we work well together because of our common interest in preserving the quality of the White Rock Lake environment.

Our organization was established in October 1995 by Marci Novak, our group supports projects that not only beautify White Rock Park but also make it cleaner and safer. White Rock Lake is a jewel, something this city can be proud of. In slightly over a year, our group has raised more than $100,000 to fund a variety of projects. Recent endeavors have included the installation of three handicap-accessible, freeze-proof water fountains and play ground equipment at Teepee Hill.

One of our group's most successful reclamation projects has been to spruce up the park's graffiti-covered bathrooms. A number of local artists donated their time to paint murals with a lake or running theme in the bathrooms. The murals were treated with a graffiti-proof finish that allows marks to be cleaned off the surface preventing permanent damage to the artwork.

Among For the Love of the Lake's ongoing efforts is the Adopt-A-Shore program. On the second Saturday of each month, community groups throughout the metroplex meet at the lake to pick up garbage and clean up the shoreline and parkland.

Thanks to a grant from North Texas Council of Governments, the organization is now putting recycling stations and covered trash bins at a number of locations around White Rock Lake. We also plan to install benches throughout the park.

These are just a few of the things we do to make the lake more beautiful, user-friendly and safe.

As volunteer coordinator for our group, I enjoyed working behind the scenes during pre-race preparations. We undertook a massive calling effort to neighborhood organizations and community groups to get as many people out as possible to line the marathon route. We want it to be like New York's marathon with people cheering on the runners throughout the race.

In addition to calling, Love of the Lake members volunteered to provide vital services at Packet Pickup; 50 strong we worked at Lukes during the week. As course guides on race day, 60 members volunteered and we also had a cheering station on East Lawther between Winfrey and the Auborium that stayed to cheer the last runner along.

On December 17th, 1995 we were honored to receive an award from Keep Dallas Beautiful presented by U.S. Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison for our efforts this year.

Anyone interested in joining the volunteer efforts of for the Love of the Lake may call (214-622-SAVE (7283).

The Success of the Rock depends upon the Strength of its Volunteer Workforce

By Debye Humphrey

It never occurred to me when I agreed to be a volunteer coordinator that 7 months later I would be on the phone asking a person who was a complete stranger to me, Mesquite Policeman Brandon Borden, to rendezvous at a strip joint early on a Sunday morning.

As thousands of runners were heading for City Hall on Marathon Sunday, many hearty souls were scattering away from downtown to perform missions essential to the race's success. Six of these volunteers met Dick Taylor at PT's to embark on a Sag Wagon tour of the course, while 6 others headed for La Madeleine's at 7:30 a.m. to meet Bob Skaer and begin coning the course. More than 100 volunteer course guides met Parks Stearns at IHOP at 6:30 a.m. to receive T-shirts and street assignments. All mile split timers were actually heading toward the starting line to start their watch and listen to a pep talk from Rollie Stevens, a 13 year veteran as mile split captain. These 42 split timers receive the most volatile responses from runners, who sometimes hold them responsible for any variance between their anticipated split time and the actual elapsed time they experience between mile splits. The timer everyone wants to see is Allan Hall of Stillwater, OK, at Mile 26. Allan comes to town for the express privilege of starting his watch at City Hall, walking around the corner to the 26 mile marker to await the runners, calling out times until 1:51 pm. turning off his watch and heading back home until next year's Marathon.

This is proof of the dedication of the volunteers and how much fun they have. The Rock's 1996 beneficiary, for the Love of the Lake, came out and supported us with over 40 "loving" volunteers. Most people who have worked the race enjoy it so much they want to come back year after year. Many request the same spot they've worked in the past. As I collected prospective volunteer names throughout the fall, I could not help but pick up on the enthusiasm as I listened to their stories. Doris Lafayette, the voice of the Marathon Hotline, had much the same experience as many people explained exactly what spot on the course they wanted to work. It was an excellent year for all the volunteers, no precipitation, warmer temperatures, lots of sunshine and great camaraderie. This event would not be such a success without all of the dedicated volunteers.

THE 1996 MARATHON AID STATIONS

BY DAWN BURKE AID STATION COORDINATOR

Once again, The Dallas White Rock Marathon was an overwhelming success, due in no small part to the support and dedication of our aid station volunteers and their sponsoring organizations. On behalf of the 2,756 marathoners and the 1,054 relay participants in this year's marathon, we'd like to express our sincere appreciation for their efforts.

As some of the many unsung heroes of the marathon, these volunteers report to their aid stations before sun-up to put together some of the most enthusiastic and creatively themed aid stations you'll find at any race. From the first runner who "scored with the Rock" at Baylor-Tom Landry's aid station (mile 2) to the last runner who crossed the finish line and headed for American Airlines' aid station, these volunteers served up water, Powerade and encouragement all along the course.

This year, in addition to our many "die hard" volunteers, we were able to increase the number of aid stations in the marathon. We're glad to have you first-timers on board, and hope to see everyone back in 1997.

Our "best overall aid station" award, as voted on by the runners, went to Lukes, for "Luke's Country" (mile 4). The Corporate "A" division title went to Texas Instruments/Aramark for "Hog Heaven" (mile 11). Corporate "B" honors went to Run On!, for "Retro" (mile 10), and the Non-Corporate award went to The Party Hogs (mile 25). All of our aid stations did a fabulous job this year, and in the hearts and minds of the runners, they are all winners.

Marathon Enchilada a New World Record

Restaurateur's 1,057-foot veggie creation waiting at the end of the 'Rock'

Measuring 1,057 feet long, Martin Zisman's latest creation was indeed one big enchilada, although it was still 26 miles shorter than its inspiration, the White Rock Marathon.

Before the marathoners gobbled it up Sunday, the enchilada was filled with only healthful ingredients – spinach, broccoli, cauliflower, yellow squash, zucchini and red bell pepper – that fit its role as the official food of Sunday's big race.

Mr. Zisman, a Tex-Mex restaurateur, billed it as "The World's Largest Enchilada." He was dishing it out to all comers after the marathon and hoping for no leftovers.

"I guess if they don't finish all this enchilada, I'll have to finish it myself," said Mr. Zisman, who owns Martin's Cocina in East Dallas.

That shouldn't be a problem for Mr. Zisman, a marathon board member who has lost 101 pounds in the last year while eating smaller versions of the giant veggie enchilada.

Mr. Zisman is a runner and competed in a half-marathon at White Rock Lake on Nov. 2.

"I've been through the process before, and know what it's like," he said. "It's hard to adjust your system to food (after running a marathon), and this is probably the most adjustable food I could find."

Mr. Zisman plans to return to the marathon next year – in even better shape.

"I'll be running next year," he promised. "And we'll be back serving food. It may be the enchilada again, or it may be something different, but we plan to be here."

From the Dallas Morning News.

Congratulations Marathoners!

Sincerely,

Martin Zisman

P.S. I want to thank Hardie's for donating the bulk of the veggies, Southwest Securities for their cash donation, Eddie Dean and his Ranch party facility and Vicki Eisenberg Agency for its help with public relations.

WEEKEND HIGHLIGHTS

Marathon Weekend Happenings by John Jenkins

The marathon weekend officially kicked off at 9:00 am Saturday with the Sports/Fitness Expo at Plaza of the Americas. The Expo was such a success last year, marathon officials wondered whether it could be improved. It turns out it could and they did it! The Expo featured over forty exhibitors including the Rock Shop with tons of Rock merchandise. The Runner's World Clinic and seminar by Herb Elliott were especially well received and attended.

Saturday night's Pasta Dinner was a sold out affair prompting race officials to plan additional seating for the event next year. The Harvey Hotel proved to know how to handle carbo loading runners. As runners were seated, they were served a huge plate of spaghetti.

The panel of speakers at the head table was a "Who's Who" of running: Olympic gold medalists Herb Elliott and Peter Snell, Award for Excellence recipient Runner's World publisher George Hirsch and editor Amby Burfoot, and our featured speaker Dr. Kenneth Cooper - the father of "AEROBICS". Talk about a dynamic information packed speech.

The Pasta Dinner also included a special thank you to Donald Key. Donald's recent transfer to St. Louis ended over twenty years association with the marathon. Donald, we will miss your guidance and leadership!

Mother Nature apologized for 1995's record cold by providing absolutely perfect weather for the marathon Sunday morning. Temperatures lazily rose to sixty degrees over the course of the marathon. That combined with the addition of five aid stations prompted many runners to great finishing times.

Collectively, you runners took approximately 129,113,600 steps to cover the course. That's 46,112 each if you did your share. No wonder your feet hurt! If your stomach felt a bit uneasy, maybe it's because you drank 4,883 gallons of water and Powerade. You used up about 125,000 cups along the way!

One of the neat things about marathons is that you can't run them every weekend. With the months of training and weeks of recovery, you've got a lot invested in the marathon's outcome. That's why the finish line is such a great place to be (if you can't be running, of course). To witness the real life thrill of victory and agony of defeat for thousands of marathoners, all shooting for their own personal goal is incredible.

By popular demand, the Awards Banquet returned to the Dallas Convention Center immediately following the marathon. This year, runners feasted on a thousand foot veggie enchilada prepared by Martin's Cocina as they recovered and traded stories.

At 2:00 pm the awards were handed out and one by one we all limped toward our cars wondering how we might do just a little better in 1997. You work on your training and we'll work on the race. Together, we can make the 28th Rock the best ever!

See you on December 7, 1997!

Runners World Pacer, Bart Yasso, congratulates Richard Combs of Fort Worth who ran with his group to successfully reach his goal of a 3:29:19 finishtime.

Runners World Pacer, Eileen Shovin, exults in the successful finish of Christie Posner who ran with her group to reach her goal of a 3:44:42 finishtime.

Don Key (l) receives the official starters gun from board treasurer, Ken Vines, to ensure he will return each year to start the Rock.

Herb Elliott, the world's greatest miler.

Sharing the world record Enchilada at the post race awards luncheon.

Rehydrating and discussing the race with family and friends.

Award for Excellence

RUNNERS WORLD MAGAZINE, RECIPIENT OF THE 1996

DALLAS WHITE ROCK MARATHON AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE.

ACCEPTING THIS AWARD (L TO R) ARE: AMBY BURFOOT AND GEORGE HIRSH. MAKING THE PRESENTATION (CENTER) IS DON LUCAS, CHAIRMAN OF THE MARATHON BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

From the time most of us participated in our first road race, we learned of Runner's World Magazine, the "bible" of running enthusiasts the world over. First published in 1966, Runner's World Magazine celebrated its 30th anniversary with a special "100 Years of Running" issue in December 1996. It is the world's largest running magazine with nearly 2 million Americans reading Runner's World magazine monthly plus an additional 500,000 readers internationally. Separate editions are published in England, Germany, Sweden, Netherlands, Belgium and South Africa.

Runner's World has long been known for offering the best and most-highly-researched training, nutrition and injury-prevention advice to its readers. In addition, the famed Runner's World Shoe Buyers Guides have immeasurably improved the quality and technical sophistication of running shoes by insisting that shoe manufacturers deliver the kind of product that runners need.

The Runner's World writers and editors read like a "who's who" of running journalism, including 1976 Marathon fourth-place finisher Don Kardong and Hal Higdon, who has written about running for four decades.

Last Year, the staff of Runner's World magazine took a highly innovative step out of the magazine pages to appear in person at the 1995 St. George Marathon for the purpose of pacing runners to reach their goals of qualifying for the 100th Boston Marathon. The Centennial Boston is history, but the highly successful pacing service was extended to Dallas this year. Seven staff members lead pace groups of approximately 40 participants each at pace times from 3:10 to 4:30. All of these groups were warmly received and the Runner's World pacers all met their pace times with a margin of approximately 20 to 40 seconds to spare. The seven pace leaders were Amby Burfoot, John Bingham, Vern Walther, Bart Yasso, Adam Bean, Glen Hughes and Eileen Shovlin.

The purpose of the Dallas White Rock Marathon Award for Excellence is to recognize individuals or entities who have demonstrated the positive effects of running on health and fitness through outstanding effort, determination, commitment and courage. Candidates for this award must excel in one or more of the following areas: Made a major contribution to the sport of running or to the Dallas running community; overcome significant impairment or personal tragedy to run; experienced a major lifestyle change through running; made a major impact on the lifestyle of others; or achieved outstanding performance in running.

Because of what it is and what it stands for in the world-wide running community, there can be no doubt that Runner's World Magazine has made both a major contribution to the sport of running and has had a major impact on the lifestyles of all us runners. Therefore, Runner's World Magazine was selected by the Dallas White Rock Marathon to receive our prestigious Award for Excellence. This award was established in 1985 and was presented for the 12th time this year.

George Hirsch, Publisher, and Amby Burfoot, Executive Editor, traveled to Dallas to receive the Award on behalf of Runner's World Magazine.

CROSS COUNTRY CLUB OF DALLAS

The training never ends.

The competition is intense.

The hours are long.

The clock

And you can't

anything else.

Neither can we.
