Dear Runners:

It's a whole new century, and a whole new world. How things have changed since our letter to you last year. Like America itself, the 2001 Dallas White Rock Marathon faced new challenges and made some significant changes for its 32nd running. We introduced a new Marathon course and a new start and finish venue draped in red, white, and blue; the American Airlines Center.

The new, more scenic course was specifically designed to offer spectators more opportunities to cheer on runners as they passed, and it earned rave reviews both from participants and from those who flocked to wave their flags and shout encouragement.

We enjoyed a record number of runners in both the individual Marathon and the relay events; more than 6,500 men and women Ran the Rock in 2001. The great weather was also a plus this year, and it was a blessing as we suffered through a series of 'new-venue snafus' at the start/finish lines and at the post-race party. Thanks to all of you for being so patient; we are already working to rectify the problems that occurred so they'll not be repeated.

A new Presenting Sponsor, Green Mountain Energy, signed on to the Marathon this year, and the events enjoyed our largest number of sponsors ever. That support from both our new and our long-standing sponsors will allow us to present our major beneficiary, the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children, with a handsome contribution.

Again this year, our hard-working race volunteers made The Rock one of America's top Marathons. Our media coverage was exceptional, and the digital results tabulation set a record for timely results. Our redesigned Web site, www.runtherock.com, became a more powerful tool for us this year, and we'll be adding new content in the months ahead; visit us frequently for the latest updates on the Dallas White Rock Marathon for 2002.

We'll see you at the starting line!

The Ladies at the Rock

Dana Bullard

Rae Mills

Dana Bullard of Arlington has been redefining her marathon goals since Dec. 9, 2001.

She achieved her spring goal at the Rock, surprising herself by setting a personal best and winning a race she hadn't been planning to enter.

Bullard, 24, was in the middle of marathon training in hopes of breaking three hours at the Motorola Austin Marathon in February. She became sick during the Dallas White Rock Half Marathon in November and had to drop out. She decided on the Tuesday before the race that she would run half of the Rock to raise her confidence level.

"It's really amazing," said Bullard, who won in 2 hours, 59 minutes. "I didn't expect to have such a good race. I sure didn't expect to win."

The Rock was her third career marathon. Bullard, a former Grapevine High School and University of Texas distance runner, clocked a personal best by nearly 8 minutes. She set her previous best, 3:06, in New York City in 1999. She ran Cowtown 2000 in 3:07:48.

She and her husband, fellow runner Coby Bullard, had been planning to go out to the Rock anyway to watch a friend. So, she entered the race.

Coby met her at the halfway point, as planned, to pick her up.

Dana said she felt good and wanted to keep running. Periodically, Coby met her and asked if she was ready to stop. Dana said she still felt good so she kept going. She was surprised at her success considering her sporadic training. Her longest training run had only been 14 miles.

"I was just hoping to get through half in 1:27," said Bullard, who works as a financial manager for Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railways. "I did it in 1:26."

For Bullard, winning the Rock ranks at the top of her running career highlights. She placed seventh at the state cross country championship her senior year at Grapevine (1994) and seventh again at the Big 12 Outdoor Championship her senior year at Texas.

"This is exciting," she said. "I haven't won that many races."

Timing worked to Bullard's advantage.

Defending champion Riva Rahl entered the race. She also has been training for the Motorola Austin Marathon. Rahl will be trying to run faster than 2:48:00 to qualify for the 2004 Olympic Marathon Trials.

Rahl, intent on saving her legs for February, led until the halfway point when she stopped. Once Rahl dropped out, Bullard became the leader. She easily defeated runner-up Heather Gilbertson (3:03:43) of Eagan, Minn., and Rockwall's Tonya Miller (3:04:52).

Gilbertson came to Dallas to join her former college roommate who was running here. She was hoping to break 3 hours, but she said she wasn't disappointed. Dallas is her fourth marathon this year. It is her 11th career marathon.

"I had no idea I was one of the top women," she said. "I didn't know Dallas has such a beautiful course."

Kim Bricker of Edmund, OK captured the women's masters title. She placed sixth overall in 3:11:06. Jane Hutchison of Webb City, MO won the grand masters title with a 3:32:53 finish. Jennie Ingemarsson of Dallas won the Clydesdale Division with a 4:09:59 finish.

Expo 2001!!!

By Dawn Burke Colvin & Bob Luchsinger, Expo Coordinators

30-plus vendors and thousands of runners, their families and friends attended the 2001 Dallas White Rock Marathon Expo, held Saturday, December 8th. In addition to picking up registration packets, runners had the opportunity to shop, get information on other local and state-wide running events and visit with our 2001 Victory Award for Excellence winner, Harry Cordellos. Frank Shorter and Bill Rodgers were on hand to give motivational talks and sign autographs, and a classical string duo provided a welcome calm to the hustle and bustle of the Expo.

A special thanks goes out to Luann Bruster, for coordinating our speakers and entertainment.

- American Airlines Center, all lit up on Race Day morning.
- It's a red, white and blue day at American Airlines Center. Let's Rock!
- The Marathon start with the ultimate 1st and 2nd place about to take the lead.
- Shelley Laine, rising young CW singer, performs the National Anthem.
- This couple appears cozy and warm waiting for the race to start.
- Mav's Man and Chuck Dannis of KRLD give us the "V" for Victory sign.
- Division Winning Team, 2 Blondes/3 Non Blondes, make a good handoff.
- Andrew Warden, 4th in the 25-29 division, finished in 3:02:11.
- Manuel Echeuerria carries the American flag to a 3:07:36 finish time.
- KRLD News Radio 1080 team member, Pam Monks, running by Big Thicket.
- This pack is running strong, headed for a Top 10 finish.
- Grand Mary's special cheering God-family, Jake, Madeline, Amy and Tony Ezell.
- Master's winner, Chris Crawford, finished 4th overall.
- Run the Rock banner.
- First time marathoner, Joshua Wyatt from Plano, Texas, finished in 3:28.
- Michael Held (921) and Lawrence Adams (2762) of Dallas finished in 3:17:28.
- Joel Ibarra crosses the finish line for his 2nd consecutive Rock victory.
- Bobalu, Harry and Ann Dannis (on cell phone).
- Anchor runner for The Pipers, the 1st place relay team with a 2:15:50 finish time.
- Kevin Ellis, Chevy Chase, Maryland, is running a very patriotic race.
- What a great spot to cheer for Mom when she runs by!

Volunteers of the Decade

By Betty and Murray Forsvall

They have labored long and hard for many years...in the shadows, virtually unknown, unrecognized and unappreciated. But now finally they have been officially honored for their work by being named "Volunteers of the Decade" by the White Rock Marathon Board of Trustees.

Parks Stearns, the leader of the course guides; Rollie Stevens, the man in charge of the split timers, and Joyce Rhines (photo pg. 27), who handles the bag drop area, were recognized at a January gathering of the board. All three handled their jobs throughout most of the 1990s and have continued into the new century. Their positions have required a lot of dedication, time and effort.

Parks has been involved in volunteering for the marathon for many years, working first with Casey Chandler in the 1980s when he recalls several years waiting at 5 a. m. in the freezing dark "for the guy with the key" to open the door at 500 South Ervay to start making assignments.

Parks took over the leadership in 1996 and found a warm meeting place (the IHOP at Abrams and Mockingbird) and advanced the time to 6 a. m. He there provides volunteers with detailed maps of where they should be on the marathon course, when to expect the first runner and when to expect the last runner. He then drives the course about 30 minutes prior to the race to see if everyone is in place and assigns backups just in case. He also makes a final tour toward the end of the race to say thanks.

His job starts long before race day. He coordinates with Janet Smith and The Love of the Lake people who provide the bulk of the course guides...he and his wife Beth contact by e-mail and telephone every volunteer (they number well over 100) to double-check their willingness to work. And he loses sleep over it all. Says he: "As the Rock nears each year, I find myself awakening in the middle of the night with the vision of the intrepid runners lost in Mesquite, having taken a wrong turn due to an abandoned post or the momentary inattention of one of my guides. Thanks to the conscientious tenacity of our volunteers, that nightmare has never come true."

Parks is a runner himself who has covered the 26.2 miles, first in 1986 with his 15-year-old daughter. He set a personal record in 1990 when he ran the Rock in a very respectable 3:47. Now he can often be found running toward the back of the pack talking to everyone and just having fun.

Rollie Stevens started serving as a split timer (the folks that call out times and paces at every mile of the Rock) in 1979, working with David Wilson. He took over as coordinator in 1984 and has missed only one year since. Rollie first does a lot of recruiting on his own, calling on friends who have helped for years to go along with those provided by the marathon volunteer coordinators. Then with some helpers (Jim Conrad in particular this year) contacts everyone and meets with them a couple of hours before the race to provide assignments, charts and watches. Those watches all start when the races does. It is then a race to get the timers to the early miles. The rest follow their own path to their stations. Rollie later tours the course to say job well done for another year.

Rollie is a military man having served for 31 years on active duty in the Navy and the Reserve. He retired at the rank of Captain-06, but participates and is an officer in several military-related organizations. He is married, has three children and three grandchildren, sings in his church choir and is active in youth leadership activities. He was a runner in grade school, high school and at the University of Iowa, where he ran the half-mile and cross country. He ran recreationally until he was 55 and now walks for exercise.

Joyce Rhines describes herself as "the bag lady." She is much more. She won the Senior Division of the Legs Mini Marathon (a 10K race) in New York in a time of 54:00 when she was 62 years old and set a real marathon PR in at White Rock of 4:38:52 when she was 64. In between, before and after, she helped create and has been in charge of the bag drop station at White Rock. It is where runners leave excess clothing and supplies before the race...and pick them up after the race. Sound like an easy job? Not when you consider the volume Joyce and her partners handle. They barely have time to sort everything out and line them up by the numbers before the first runners start arriving. Then Joyce stays around until the last bag is gone...sometimes until the last runner has crossed the line some eight hours after the start.

Joyce, a widow, was married for over 52 years and has three daughters and a multitude of friends and admirers. She likes to travel to see her daughters, two in Houston and another in Colorado...and to travel with them. And she likes to study genealogy. Now 77, Joyce still occasionally competes in races...though understandably not quite as fast as she once did.

Although Parks, Rollie and Joyce are prominent volunteers, they are just three of the hundreds it takes to conduct the marathon successfully. There is another longtime volunteer who certainly should be noted,—Bob Skaer, the cone man...who comes along with his crew long before the start and places cones in strategic spots both to guide and protect the runners. Then later in the afternoon, he picks them all up. No one really knows how long Bob has been doing his job...but there is a rumor floating around that he placed cones along the way to help a fellow named Phidippides find the way when he ran the first marathon in ancient Greece.

By Clark Kennington

The consensus among runners of this year's Dallas White Rock Marathon was that the aid stations were a huge success. This success was due to the many volunteers who came out and manned the stations. There were nineteen aid stations assisting runners throughout the course and two groups assisting runners at the finish line. The winning aid station this year went to Luke's Locker for their aid station at mile four, entitled Luke's Country. Runner up went to JC Penney's aid station at mile twelve. Congratulations.

Thanks Luke's Country!

Thanks to all the hard working volunteers who have made Luke's aid station our "Runner's Favorite" for so many years!

THE REAL CHAMPIONS

Thanks for making this year's Dallas White Rock Marathon a huge success! Your support of the Dallas White Rock Marathon directly benefits the lives of many young patients at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children.

Supported entirely through private donations, the hospital has emerged as one of the nation's leading pediatric medical centers for the treatment of orthopedic conditions, related neurological disorders and learning disabilities.

Texas Scottish Rite Hospital provides ongoing treatment to more than 13,000 children a year – at no charge to their families. Since 1921, our efforts have dramatically impacted the lives of more than 130,000 children around the world. And thanks to your support, we'll continue impacting lives for years to come.

THE
I ROCKED
ROCK

The logo consists of the words 'THE I ROCKED ROCK' in a bold, stylized font. 'THE' is in a smaller, outlined font above the first 'R'. 'I ROCKED' is in a red, outlined font, slanted upwards. 'ROCK' is in a large, black, outlined font. To the right of the 'K' is a black silhouette of a person with their arms raised in a 'V' shape, suggesting a rock star or a person celebrating.
