Dear Runners,

What a great year to be a part of the Dallas White Rock Marathon!

By all standards, this year's marathon was the most exciting ever - with record-level participation, elite runners from around the world and a dramatic, patriotic start-line ceremony.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank the many volunteer leaders who have worked so hard to build the Dallas White Rock Marathon into Dallas' signature running event. And, I would like to thank the White Rock Marathon for creating the Mayor's Race, a fun, family-oriented event that allows the City to showcase support for the marathon and include Dallas families in the weekend-long festivities.

The Mayor's Race is a great addition to the marathon weekend, and I hope, that as the marathon becomes one of the biggest runs in the nation, that the Mayor's Race, too, will grow to become a Dallas tradition, and opportunity for city leaders to acknowledge the achievement of the runners and the great benefits this event brings our city.

Again, congratulations to all the runners on your great accomplishment. I hope to put on my running shoes and see you again in 2004 at the Mayor's Race on December 11, and the Dallas White Rock Marathon on December 12.

Keep on running,

Mayor Laura Miller

The Dallas White Rock Marathon and Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children salute Ernest Pacheco and Squires & Co. for the artwork that defined The Rock in 2003.

"Dallas has the most spectacular race start in the Country. It begins at the luxurious American Airlines Arena. Experience fireworks, a jet flyover, and live video coverage of the start on a jumbo-tron television. Get showered with confetti, on your way to the most thrilling race of your life."

— Roger Foster,
"Marathon Entertainment Czar"

See you guys next year at the marathon if my body holds up another training cycle.

— Jeff Jarrell

This was my 4th consecutive Rock and it was by far the best and most memorable. And for me the high point of the start was the moment at the conclusion of our National Anthem when more fireworks rang out followed by three screaming F-16s flying overhead! WOW!!!! I was in total awe and pumped for the race.

dear runners

Thank you for being with us for the 34th running of the Dallas White Rock Marathon. The volunteer Board of Trustees takes The Rock's reputation as "a race run by runners for runners" seriously, and we hope this book provides many good memories.

The 2003 Rock generated a lot of responses from participants, many included on these pages...Perfect weather, Beautiful course, Great support and Oh man, did you see those fighter jets?

This year, we added two new events. On Friday night, we had a Shindig at Eddie Deen's Ranch with country-western style and Eddie's signature barbecue. Thanks to Dan Roberts and the Clear Fork Band who played their award winning music and to the Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders!

And on Saturday morning, Dallas Mayor Laura Miller introduced, then ran in, the inaugural Mayor's Race. Mayor Miller, an avid runner and fitness supporter, will make the 5K race a marathon weekend tradition.

The Belo Expo was a the best yet, and our host hotel, Hyatt Regency - Reunion, was abuzz all Saturday with runners and shoppers getting ready for Sunday's race.

This had to be one of the most exciting starts to a road race anywhere, any time. More than 8,500 runners and countless spectators were treated to spectacular sights at the start and all along the course. For those counting, there were 3,743 registered marathon runners, 2,667 half-marathon runners, and 2,025 relay racers (405 teams). Many of you are pictured in this book.

We hope you thanked a Dallas police officer as you ran. Members of the Dallas Police Association donated their time this year, providing a safe course and some enthusiastic cheers.

A great race comes from the efforts of many. Every year, your feedback helps us prepare. Sponsors contribute in ways that make it hard not to succeed. Over 2,000 volunteers work the course and behind the scenes. Prize money, for the marathon and the relay, bring elite athletes and international attention.

We sincerely hope that looking over the race results and photos will bring back good memories and that we will see you again on Sunday, December 12, 2004.

Thanks to the wonderful people at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children who make our efforts more rewarding than a paycheck.

FOR CHILDREN

TSRHC Patient Caitlyn, age 2

On behalf of everyone here at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children (TSRHC), and especially the children that benefit from the proceeds of the Dallas White Rock Marathon, we want to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for running The Rock. The Dallas White Rock Marathon stands for values TSRHC believes in. It reaches out to people across many communities and encourages people to find ways to help each other. For more than 80 years, this is how Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children has provided care for more than 140,000 children across the state of Texas, without ever charging their families.

Chock Bailey, DWRM Chairman and Bianca Barrios, age 3

Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children is blessed with many friends. The Rock grows each year, and the difference our many friends make for the Hospital's children gives us a warm feeling inside. This year, we have made some new special friends through The Rock. More than 170 Dallas Police Officers volunteered their time to provide security for the more than 9,000 runners and 100,000 spectators at the 2003 Dallas White Rock Marathon. Forty-five bands entertained runners and spectators throughout the course. Countless volunteers sponsored aid stations to encourage runners and hand out water and snacks. Isn't this beautiful? And with the continued leadership of individuals like Chock Bailey and Marcus Grunewald, The Rock is here to stay! Many thanks to the Dallas White Rock Marathon Board of Trustees, volunteers and friends who made this the best Rock ever.

I hope you will start training today and plan to join us on December 12, 2004, for this wonderful event and cause.

victory award for excellence

◆ Karen Austin,
Secretary, Board of Trustees 2003

The 2003 Award for Excellence recipient, James Thruston, has been called an icon in the Dallas running community. A former elite runner and mainstay of Dallas races, he has consistently delivered "the positive effects of running on health and fitness through outstanding effort, determination, commitment and courage."

James grew up on a farm in Plainview, Texas, running with the cows. After a degree at Texas Tech, and time in the Army, worked at Texas Instruments, where he joined the Texans Striders running club. James ran his first race for TI in the spring of 1976, and by the end of the year he was president of the club.

He became a proficient age group runner in his 40s, with a mile PR of 5:09, 5K PR of 19:10, 10K PR of 37:25, and a marathon PR of 2:58 (1981 New York Marathon). All his PR's were between the ages of 40 and 45. In 1978 and 1979, James won over 25 age group trophies when his schedule allowed him to participate in someone else's race.

Thruston drew up the blue prints for a race organization and timing system that is still used today by many of the area's race directors. He was President of Cross Country Club of Dallas (CCCD) from 1979-1982. In 1979, he opened one of Dallas' premier running stores, The Jogger, which he operated until 1989. That year he was also race director of The Dallas White Rock Marathon, and he was featured in Texas Runner magazine as having "made an impact on the running scene in Texas."

James Thruston has put on 60-80 races per year since the mid-80s. He started the Autumn Equinox, the Snowman Shuffle, the White Rock Half Marathon, JogREggNogr, the Bachman 5K Series, Cupid's Chase, Labor Day Run and the Flagpole 5 Mile.

James describes his races as catering to the average to serious runner, with accurate courses, mile splits, lots of age group awards, quick results and plenty of aid stations.

According to Cliff Couch, a local runner who announces many of the area races, "James Thruston defines all that is excellent in running. He consistently demonstrated the tenacity that made him a mainstay on the winners' platform for many years. Then he channeled that determination into race promotion. The term 'runner friendly' truly personifies this unique, gifted and generous treasure who has graced our sport for so many years."

James Thruston was presented with The Award for Excellence at the pre-marathon pasta dinner. He was deeply moved that the Board selected him to join such noted recipients as Frank Shorter and Bill Rodgers. Accepting the award, he thanked the Dallas running community for their support of him and his race events for so many years.

Your thoughts...

This was my 26th marathon in 10 years and was by far the most outstanding race I have participated in. I can't wait until next year's Rock...I wonder what you will come up with to top this! Cheers!
— Dennis D. Mease

Thanks for a great race- it was my first White Rock and I'll definitely be back to do it again- it was great!
— Nancy Hammond

This was my first Dallas White Rock Marathon and ...this one was exceptional. Vonita Croy came back and ran in with me the last mile or two. She was a real encouragement. She was special runner with contagious energy who really enjoys running and encouraging fellow runners. I plan to come back and run better. I will always remember this day of running.

I ran in the Half and thought it was AWESOME.

inside scoop

Your thoughts...

Is it my imagination or is the Dallas White Rock Marathon one of the last "independent" marathons in Texas? I think we're finally on track to be a star marathon venue.

I look forward to coming back to Dallas next year. One thing... a few degrees warmer would be nice.
— Ken Smooke,
Southern California

I have run 15 marathons and your event will go down as one of my favorites... beautiful course and the spectators were encouraging. I hope to make it to Dallas again as I continue to chase my Boston dream.
— Gerry Toole, Toronto

The Rock was the most fun thing I've done since playing football in front of 75,000 people... It was GREAT.

men at the rock

♦ Debbie Fetterman, Staff Writer, The Dallas Morning News

Nephat Kinyaniui of Kenya, a 22-year-old relative unknown, had been steadily building his base. He focused on his training and didn't over race, following his coach's advice to aim for one season-ending race.

Kinyaniui chose the 2003 Dallas White Rock Marathon for his debut. He surpassed his limited expectations by surging away from the elite pack in the final 10K to win the 34th running of the Rock in 2 hours, 16 minutes, 27 seconds. It was the fastest Dallas marathon finish since Victor De Jesus Diaz clocked 2:16:03 in '95.

"I didn't think I could land that time," said Kinyaniui, who lives in Philadelphia. "I was expecting to run a 2:20. It's a big surprise to win."

With the victory, Kinyaniui earned $10,000. He said his biggest payday previously had been $1,000. He said he hopes to buy a nice house for his parents and help his 12 sisters and brothers get more settled. "They do not have much money," he said.

In the 19th mile, Kinyaniui sped past runner-up Augustus Kavutu of Kenya, third-place finisher Andrey Gordeyev of Belarus and Kim Gillard of Australia, who later dropped out of the race. Gordeyev stayed within view. Kavutu, considered the best athlete in the field, didn't respond to Kinyaniui's surge. Yet Kinyaniui knew he was a threat and continually looked over his shoulder the next few miles. Kavutu, who lives in Canada, had outrun Kinyaniui at the Philadelphia 8K in November. Kavutu struggled with severe calf cramps. He said he couldn't overcome the pain necessary to stage a comeback in Dallas.

"I didn't want to push anymore," said Kavutu, who raced frequently this fall... "I knew I was fighting for No. 2 then. I've seen I was better than him, but today was crazy. I'm tired. I'll rest and train for next year."

In contrast, Kinyaniui's legs appeared fresh. He last raced in a half marathon nearly six months before. He also felt no pressure. He just wanted to see what he could do. His coach, John Kagwe, a two-time New York City Marathon champion, had prepared him well. Kinyaniui said he plans to make the Dec. 12, 2004 White Rock Marathon his next 26.2-mile race. He said he's like to try to win again. Next year, he said he'll be aiming to break the course record (2:12:18), set in 1982, by John Lodwick.

If Kinyaniui can win again, it would be reminiscent of another relative unknown, who became a two-time White Rock champion: Andres Espinoza of Mexico. Four years later, Espinoza won the 1993 New York City Marathon in 2:10:04. "(Dallas) is where I like to run," Kinyaniui said. "It has good weather and good people."

women at the rock

◆ Debbie Fetterman, Staff Writer, The Dallas Morning News

Liudmila Kortchaguina of Russia came to Dallas with her sights set on winning the women's division and breaking the 22-year-old women's record. Kortchaguina easily won the race in 2:37:06. She finished sixth overall.

She posted the second fastest time in the history of the women's race. However, she said she through her husband and interpreter, Iliia, that she was disappointed because she missed Julie Brown's 1981 record of 2:33:39. Kortchaguina's personal best, 2:29:53, gave her confidence that the mark was attainable.

"I tried," said Kortchaguina, who lives in Toronto with Iliia. "If there had been one or more men running with me, maybe I could have, but I was all alone."

Race officials anticipated that she would run with a group of fast men, but she ended up more than a minute behind the fifth-place man and more than three minutes ahead of the sixth-place man.

For Kortchaguina, Dallas is her second marathon victory this year. She won Pittsburgh in May. She was second in the Los Angeles Marathon.

Kortchaguina took home $10,000 for the victory. She missed the $2,500 bonus she would have earned had she broken Brown's record.

As her race unfolded, Kortchaguina found herself running alone most of the way. Runner-up Elvira Kolpakova of Russia fell behind Kortchaguina early. Kolpakova mistook a woman half marathoner to be a marathoner. She thought she had been pushed out of prize money contention. "I was so disappointed because I thought I was in third," said Kolpakova, who added she walked and ran slowly as she thought over her situation. "I almost dropped out. I decided to finish for pride."

Kolpakova is an ultra marathoner. She had recently run a 100K and didn't have the leg strength or foot speed to push Kortchaguina.

In addition to her victory, Kortchaguina will take home plenty of Texas memories. She toured the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children on Friday morning and had her picture taken atop a Longhorn Steer Friday night at the Texas Shindig BBQ party. "Oh, it's so interesting," she said. "We had the photo with the big cow. It will be a big memory for the future to show our daughter."

half marathon at the rock

♦ Debbie Fetterman, Staff Writer,
The Dallas Morning News

The Dallas White Rock Marathon's inaugural Michelob Ultra "Run the Rock" Half Marathon proved to be a hit for runners and race officials. More than 2,500 runners registered for the 13.1-mile event.

Logan Sherman, a Richardson Pearce senior, surprised himself and the rest of the field when he won his first half marathon in 1 hour, 11 minutes, 45 seconds. The runner-up, Vance Reyes of Humble, Texas, trailed by almost a minute. Sherman, 17, had never raced this far.

In contrast, women's half marathon winner, Firaya Sultanova-Zhdanova of Russia, is a professional runner, more accustomed to marathons. She placed 11th at the 2000 Boston Marathon. Sultanova-Zhdanova surprised race officials by showing up. She joined her Russian friends in Dallas and entered the half because she thought she stood a better chance of earning prize money.

Sultanova-Zhdanova finished in 1:15:03 and won $2,500. She held off a rising American runner, Carly Graytock of Rochester, Michigan, who will be competing in the women's U.S. Olympic Marathon trials this spring. Graytock runs for the Hansons-Brooks Distance Project, a women's training program for Olympic hopefuls. She finished in 1:16:47.

The half marathon, one of the fastest growing race distances, offered an alternative to runners. Organizers like it because it drew additional runners to the event. The 13.1-mile distance is less taxing for runners building up to the marathon distance and for those who Dallas' Half started with the full marathon, weaved through Uptown, the M Streets and back through downtown to the American Airlines Arena, where it started and finished.

Sherman, The Dallas Morning News SportsDay Newcomer of the Year in high school cross country in 2000, had been trying to overcome illness and personal problems as the race approached.

"I didn't have a very good week," Sherman said. "I really didn't feel like running." Hopefully, things are looking up now for Sherman, who said he hopes to defend his Class 4A 3,200 meter track title this spring.

5-person relay at the rock

♦ Teresa Linder, Relay Race Director

On Sunday, December 15th, 405 5-person relay teams participated in the Dallas White Rock Marathon along with the marathoners and half marathoners. The pursuit of prize money ($2500 paid to the first open male team and open female team) produced some very fast race times and a close finish in the open male category. Team Austin-Uts beat team Soler Elite by a mere 13 seconds! The open female relay winner was team Tex-Ark Elite. The master winning teams were Icarus' Older 3 and Lukes Vintage Ladies.

I've gotten some positive and constructive feedback from the relay participants and from the relay captains. I am always open for new ideas on ways to continually improve the 5-person relay. It seemed like we had an unusually high number of positives, and that's a good thing! I hope to see everyone return again next year, if not for the relay, maybe the half marathon or the full marathon! If just one relay runner who is new to running finds out that running is his or her passion then we have really done our job.

Having a successful relay race requires the work of many selfless volunteers who deserve a big THANKS. Job well done to all the volunteers! In particular, I'd like to thank the relay captains who spent weeks recruiting their relay volunteers for each of their stations in addition to providing leadership on race day. They can attest that running a relay exchange zone is not an easy task.

Mile 6: Jack Weiss and the Texas Multisports Triathlon Club

Mile 10: Chris Roach along with the National Stutterer's Association

Mile 15: Al Thibodeau along with the Carrollton Cyclists

Mile 20: Diane Golden with Golden Adventures

This was the first year for Diane Golden as Relay Captain. She and her crew did a wonderful job from John Hammarley on the bull horn to the two devils responsible for spotting relay runners ahead of the zone.

Special thanks to the folks with Striders who provide volunteers for packet pick up, particularly Mike Schaefer, who is the first person to arrive at the relay booth and the last person to leave, each and every year as long as I can remember.

Special thanks to my dad, Franklin Winford, who really knows how to man handle frozen cones at 4:30 a.m. race day morning, and to my husband, Toby Linder, who puts up with "a lot". I'll leave it at that.

I have run for many years, but this year was something else. The special touch at the beginning of the race with the planes and fireworks was absolutely awesome. It really meant a lot to me and, I'm sure, others. I'll be back next year.

I love the race! I've only run 8 marathons, but 5 of those have been White Rock.

— Melissa Satterfield

I had always heard that the White Rock was a fun marathon and now I believe it. The hills late in the course were not nearly as difficult as I had anticipated and the run around the lake was awesome!

for the love of the lake volunteers help white rock lake park

♦ Janet Smith, FTLOTL Event Coordinator

White Rock Lake hosts runners 365 days a year, not just on marathon day. And the runners aren't alone; there are cyclists, walkers, rollerbladers, fisherfolks, families, birders, and For the Love of the Lake (FTLOTL) members. For eight years these volunteers have been working to preserve and enhance White Rock Lake Park as an urban oasis.

The grass-roots, non-profit group has put their biggest effort into something they hope you don't notice at the lake: trash. On the second Saturday of each month, 45 Adopt-A-Shoreline groups and hundreds of volunteers gather at the FTLOTL office in Casa Linda Plaza, then head out along the shoreline, on the water in kayaks, and in the park to pick up trash and recyclables. This long-term project has brought For the Love of the Lake many local, state, and national awards. The group was thrilled recently to receive the national REI "Stewards of the Environment" Award and Dallas' Center for Non-Profit Management's Excellence in Communication Award.

This energetic and enthusiastic group has raised well over $500,000 to purchase park amenities including 500+ trash and recycling receptacles; outdoor fitness circuits (Sunset Bay and TP Hill), the TP Hill playground, 20 freeze-proof drinking fountains along jogging trails, eight "cool sprays" for runners and cyclists, two lighted marquees, 32 benches with bike racks, and five bicycles for the park police patrol at White Rock Lake.

Since 1996, FTLOTL has enjoyed a mutually beneficial relationship with the Dallas White Rock Marathon. FTLOTL provides course guides for the marathon while DWRM has donated nearly $30,000 to FTLOTL that has been spent on items to enhance the lake for runners. FTLOTL is also known for their award-winning "High-Five Heaven", an unofficial energy boosting stop around Winfrey Point, where volunteers (and a chicken and a duck!) form a gauntlet and high-five marathoners as they head into the final stretch.

Want to give something back to the lake you love? You can make a donation or you can join in as a hands-on volunteer! For information, to donate, or to get involved, call 972-622-SAVE or go to www.whiterocklake.org.

◆ Patrick Buchen, General Manager, Belo Expositions

Sure, everyone knows that running the marathon takes a lot of stamina, endurance and resolve - but what about exhibiting at the Fitness Expo? With an expected 10,000 runners all registering on one day and just 11 shopping just days before Christmas, we were looking for expo exhibitors that were tough enough to work the expo!

And we found them! Exhibitors offering anything and everything to do with the health & fitness fields were invited to participate in the Dallas White Rock Marathon Fitness Expo, and 93 exhibitors accepted that challenge. Their reward? More than 15,500 visitors and as active and dynamic shopping atmosphere as ever seen at this event!!

The combination of a nationally known marathon, the involvement of the City of Dallas, the advertising might of The Dallas Morning News and WFAA-Channel 8, the numerous monthly publications, and five local radio stations provided unparalleled marketing opportunities for the expo exhibitors... and we believe these exhibitors brought an extraordinary shopping experience to the Dallas White Rock Marathon runners and their guests!

Belo Expositions was pleased to be the producers of the Dallas White Rock Marathon Fitness Expo. From the quality, quantity and diversity of the exhibitors to the quality and variety of speakers on the stage, we hope that all involved in the 2003 event recognized and enjoyed the changes we brought to the event.

But you haven't seen anything yet - we're looking forward to 2004! We hope to see you there, too.

“What A Day To Feel Better About Yourself”

♦ Glenn White, Dallas Police Association President
(Reprinted with permission from DPA Magazine)

Yesterday (December 14, 2003), was a day I will remember for quite a long time. No, I won't remember getting up at 4 a.m., nor will I want to remember the 27 degree temperature, but one thing for sure I will never forget the video “THANK YOU” made by the children at the Scottish Rite Children's Hospital. I am talking about the 170 officers, supervisors and Deputy Chiefs who volunteered that day to work security for the White Rock Marathon. The Marathon benefits the Children's Hospital, and the volunteering of our time resulted in an additional $50,000 - $60,000 in monies directly to the Hospital.

The Dallas Police Association became a major sponsor of the event in organizing the officers for the event. As the runners ran by, many took the time to say, “thanks”. That alone meant a tremendous amount to me.

I guess I am known more for negative opinions rather than positive ones, but on that day, I could have gotten up at 2 a.m. and stood there in 10 degree weather, and I would have still felt the same!

For the first time, in a very long time, I was proud to be a Dallas Police Officer! Having actually done something, so good, for so many. It made me feel like I did many years ago when my job was to help people. I feel I actually helped a lot of “little people”, the kids!

The video “Thank You” from the kids, with the Oak Ridge Boys singing “Thank God for Kids” in the background, stayed with me all day. I really and truly felt good about myself!

For those that volunteered, THANK YOU, you are wonderful. For those who signed up to volunteer, but were unable to, (since all positions were filled, and filled quickly), THANK YOU!

To the Northeast Operations Division Explorer Group, THANK YOU! Every single one of you should be very, very proud of what you did that day.

While we all still have many bumps in the road ahead of us, and of course negative things will continue to be heard about Dallas Police Officers. For one day, I could have cared less about what people thought, because I knew 170 of Dallas's Finest, (and I mean that), were seen in a wonderful position, actually helping people.

THANK YOU ALL AGAIN!

...Take care of each other, and think about all the GOOD things you do each and every day!

Some of Dallas' Finest!

music to move your sole

◆ Roger Foster,
Entertainment Chairman

Dallas has the most entertainment of any marathon—anywhere on the Planet. 45 bands, choirs, dance companies, and an additional assortment of DJ booths and music venues lined the course to help you make that PR.

Runners warmed-up to the Dixieland jazz sounds of the 25-piece Dallas Banjo Band (beginning an hour before the start). And, enjoyed the big-band tunes of the PitPops on stage in the AAC after the race. Hot food, cold beer and lots of great music after the race provided a great environment for relaxing after that PR.

Thanks to the hard-charging Entertainment Committee members: Amy Jacoby, Johnny Bourett, Jonathan Briggs, Diane Golden, Elaine Martin, Cristian Hinojosa, Samantha Darr, Ruth Iles, Lance Price, Elly Spangler, Elizabeth Schindler & Elizabeth Waters.

I know the runners join us in extending a tremendous vote of thanks to these great bands.

Don't forget the bands that played on Friday night, Dan Roberts and the Clear Fork Band at Eddie Deen's Ranch, and on Saturday, The Crosswinds Jazz Band, played for the Mayor's Race.

Congratulations to Marathon Song Contest winners: Wayne Geyer & Mark Daigle, "The Handmedowns", for their award-winning song, "Marathon Song". It will be the theme of this year's race, and video presentation of the race. You hear it once, and you will be singing it all week. Luvly work, boys.

And, the good news for 2004. It will be bigger and better, still! More bands! More electricity! More spectators! More of everything! Get on down here!

inside scoop

Your thoughts...

Wow! From the National Anthem flyover, to what seemed like a 26.2 mile party with more bands than ever, to the very original finisher's medal, the event most definitely "Rocked!" Even the police, who I understand were providing free traffic control, got into the excitement, and were cheering us on during the last mile or so! What a boost!
 — Scott Morgan

I've wanted to do this for such a long time - you helped make a dream come true! Happy Holidays!!!
 — Linda

The best Rock yet! Perfect weather, amazing festivities. I can't tell you how much it helped to have bands along the route. My favorite was the Handmedowns at mile 21.
 — Kelli Sucher

I think you guys have figured it out...Thanks for a wonderful event, see you for my 15th...
 — Keith Francis, Arkansas runner

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING T E X A S SCOTTISH RITE HOSPITAL

One of the nation's leading pediatric centers of excellence focusing on innovative treatment, research and education.

Putting children first. It's a philosophy that began in 1921 when Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children (TSRHC), founded by Texas Masons, opened its doors to provide children with the highest quality of medical care, at no cost to the children and their families.

For more than 80 years, the loving commitment from the Hospital's devoted teams of physicians, staff and selfless volunteers has improved the lives of thousands of children with selected orthopedic and related neurodevelopmental and musculoskeletal conditions, as well as specific learning differences.

More than a medical facility, Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children is one of the nation's leading pediatric centers of excellence focusing on innovative treatment, research and education.

Thanks solely to the generous support and compassion of its donors, the Hospital has created brighter futures for more than 140,000 patients. By supporting the Hospital, you can make a life-changing impact for a young patient and help Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children continue its 82-year legacy of putting children first.

For additional information about ways to help support TSRHC, please call 214-559-7650 or visit www.tsrhc.org.

inside scoop

Your thoughts...

Great event. This was my second Rock. Last year was my first. I will be back to run another White Rock!!!
 — Lisa Czerwinski

The best part to me was all the crowd support throughout the entire course!! The Mavericks, High-5 people, Boy Scouts, Dolly's, etc., terrific music and EXTREMELY friendly and cheerful police all along the course. This is absolutely the friendliest marathon I've ever done. I didn't set any personal bests or speed records today, but I felt terrific the entire race.
 — Elizabeth Macchiarolo

All the unique water stops and bands and music in the White Rock truly make the atmosphere for this race something special. I had read in The Dallas Morning News that the goal was to make this race a "Top 5," and I think it is well on its way.

inside scoop

Your thoughts...

By the way, I love the race. The day was perfect. Volunteers were invariably cheerful and accommodating. No better race in country, in my book.

— Leonard

We heard a "White Rock Marathon" song being played over the PA system. Is that available to the public? We really want a copy!!!

— Bill Goodier, OKC, OK

I purposely picked White Rock for my first marathon due to...the reputation of the race. I was in no way disappointed. The course was beautiful and the entertainment was great. The crowd support was nice, especially those who recognized my "1st timer" bib and directed their comments towards me.

— Jeff Frable

Your race was a blast!!! I will be back to do the full next year!!!!

— Sue

thanks to volunteers, who keep us going!

◆ Dawn Burke-Colvin, Volunteer Chairperson

Crossing the finish line—every runner's goal. That feeling of accomplishment after finishing a race is indescribable. Working behind the line, a small army of volunteers from Train to End Stroke, a division of the American Heart Association, started preparing for the arrival of runners just minutes after the start.

These dedicated volunteers greeted runners as they crossed the line, handing them their finisher medals, removing their chips, passing out medical blankets and finisher shirts. They also helped runners who needed medical attention into the care of the volunteer medical staff, provided by Baylor Medical Center.

The Dallas White Rock Marathon would like to thank these tireless volunteers for their hard work and dedication. It was a long but very rewarding day, and a good time was had by all.
