

Chiara Sciascia

Board member of Estra

Born in Bologna in 1971, she studied law and has enjoyed a career in this field. Following a degree in Law in 1999, in 1999/2001 she specialised further at the Enrico Redenti law institute in Bologna, where she attended the preparation course for the magistrate exam. In 2015, she enrolled in upper-level management courses at the Business in Action course at the Adriano Olivetti Institute. She focuses her practice on M&As, the acquisition of equity investments, internal control governance, and regulatory activities. Following her work with the law firm Ferrandino in Bologna, she pursued her career with the law firm Giampaolo Giuseppe in Bologna. Since 2003, she has been enrolled with the Bar Association in Bologna and more recently with that of Ancona, and has worked as a mediator-conciliator at the Conciliation Centre of the Bar Association in Ancona. She currently collaborates with the Bucci-Olmi notary office in Ancona regarding M&As and realty contracts.
