

Roberta De Francesco

Board member of Estra

Born in Naples in 1971, she has been working in law with special attention to immigration and family rights. In 1998, she graduated in law at the University of Florence. Between 1997 and 1999, she worked with the Chamber of Labour of Florence responsible for “L’altro Diritto” association, overseeing out-of-court consultancy for EU and non-EU prisoners. From 1998 to 2001, she practised law at Studio Legale Associato Rocca - Breschi - Valentini in Prato in the field of criminal law, specialising in immigration rights. She has been a member of the Prato Bar Association since 2002. Between 2000 and 2002 she was Honorary Judge at the Surveillance Court of Turin as a sociology expert on law. Between 2002 and 2009, at the Municipality of Prato she served as a legal consultant on immigration for foreign citizens, the management of relations with local institutions and facilitation of their access for foreign citizens. Since 2013 she has been a consultant on the protection of minors for the Municipality of Prato. She currently continues to practise at her law firm.