

African American Studies Department

presents

2021 BLACK HISTORY MONTH KEYNOTE EVENT

Black Lives Lead: We, Too, Sing America!

Tanya Denise Fields, a Bronx native, is at the forefront of environmental and food justice activism. For this virtual keynote event, this Founder & Executive Director of the Black Feminist Project discusses how communities and motherhood are at the center of her life. Ms. Fields is in conversation with AFR Assistant Professor and art historian Dr. Emilie Boone. This keynote event includes CityTech faculty, students, and alum!

Location: View Virtual Event on

<http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/african-studies/>

Starting Tuesday, February 16, 2021