2 Ways to Say “Why I’m Excited to Work at Toyota”

“Toyota is dedicated to creating the future of the automotive industry” – Toyota owns over 1,500 patents, more than any other automaker, including the fuel cell vehicle, charge controller and an automatic driving system. Toyota’s innovation extends to every step of its business. This is demonstrated by its thought leadership in supply chain management and its continuous improvement management philosophy (Kaizen).

“Toyota is dedicated to sustainability” – Toyota measures its sustainability efforts in four major areas – carbon, water, materials and biodiversity. Additionally, its global Electrification strategy is bringing electric vehicles, the more sustainable form of automotive travel, to the everyday consumer.
