A close-up photograph of a red and blue parrot, possibly a Red-tailed Tropicbird, perched on a dark brown tree branch. The parrot has bright red plumage on its head, neck, and back, with a contrasting blue patch on its wing. It has a large, dark, hooked beak and is looking slightly to the left. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting a natural habitat. A semi-transparent circular graphic with a white border is overlaid on the parrot's chest.
