

JG Coffee Table

Designed By Jørgen Gammelgaard, 1962

Drawn in 1962 and introduced in 1973, Gammelgaard spent more than a decade perfecting his elegant low table design in glass. Featuring a sculptural yet simple design, it elegantly showcases the furniture professor's eminent sense of minimalism. The absence of the traditional four legs means that the JG Coffee Table establishes a solid anchored presence in the interior despite its entirely airy appearance. Crafted in Denmark from quality materials, the sculptural base is made of brushed recycled aluminium and tempered glass.
