

MK16 Folding chair

Designed By Mogens Koch, 1935

The MK16 Folding Chair is a precise and functional piece, designed by Mogens Koch with the same rigour he applied to architecture. Crafted in solid wood with saddle leather armrests, a cotton canvas seat, and solid brass fittings.

The removable back and carefully considered construction ensure lightness, strength, and effortless use.

A timeless design where craftsmanship, materials, and function exist in quiet balance.
