

APPENDIX RULES FOR THE FIS FREESTYLE SKI AND SNOWBOARD WORLD CUP

FIS SUPER SERIES

1 DEFINITION OF BIG AIR (BA) SUPER SERIES

The BA SUPER SERIES is a special of three (3) World Cup competitions for Ladies and Men (Milano, Mönchengladbach and Quebec for season 2016/2017). Each single competition follows the Rules for the FIS Freestyle Ski and FIS Snowboard World Cup and the following regulations.

2 FIS SUPER SERIES STANDINGS

The BA Super Series TOUR STANDINGS shall be used in the BA Super Series to determine the overall winner, both female and male for both the Freestyle Ski and the Snowboard Super Series. Each competitor's BA Super Series Standings will be determined by the sum of their accumulated WC Points from all competitions of the BA Super Series indicated in point 1. (See FS and SB WC rule point 11).

TIES

3.1 Ties for the Freestyle Skiing BA Super Series overall winner will be broken according to the WC Rules 11.4 (Freestyle Ski World Cup Rules). A total of points from all Super Series competitions will be made. The competitors with the highest total will win the tie. If still tied, the competitor with the greatest number of highest places is the winner. If still tied, the competitors stay tied.

3.2 Ties for the Snowboard BA Super Series overall winner will be broken as per rule 12.1.1 (Snowboard World Cup Rules): The highest total of the best event decides - if still tied, the number of first rankings, if still tied the number of second rankings, etc. decides.

4 SPECIAL TROPHIES AND PRIZES:

Special Prize – male and female overall winner of the BA Super Series OVERALL WINNER

The highest-ranked competitor from the BA Super Series Tour Standings at the end of the FIS BA Super Series will be the winner. A trophy will be made available by FIS whereas, additional prize money can be awarded by the Organizer.
