FIS Athlete Commission Member representation on FIS Council

The Congress unanimously approved a change of Statutes to include a representative of the FIS Athlete's Commission, voted by the Athletes Commission itself, as a member of the FIS Council with voting rights. The member for the next period will be Jessica Lindell-Vikarby (SWE) who was unanimously elected by the Congress.

Honorary Member of FIS

Sung Won Lee (KOR) was made an Honorary Member of FIS after serving 16 years as a Council Member and serving as the key link to the PyeongChang 2018 Olympic Winter Games.

FIS Membership

The Congress approved the affiliation of six National Ski Associations who fulfil the criteria for membership from Afghanistan, Kosovo, Kingdom of Tonga, Uganda, Nigeria and Ecuador as Associate Members.

The applications of the Mexican Ski Federation and the Ski Association of Hong Kong for full membership were also approved.

Furthermore the Congress approved the following proposals from the National Ski Associations or the Council:

Adoption of FIS Rules on the prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions (Council)

The FIS Anti-Corruption and Betting Rules adopted in 2013 have been updated to reflect the required elements of the new Olympic Movement Code, in consultation with the FIS Legal Committee. The new FIS Rules have as a consequence been renamed the FIS Rules on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions.

FIS recognizes the importance of safeguarding young people in sport (GBR)

The inclusion of a clause in the FIS Statutes to encourage all member nations to develop policies to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young persons as included under the objectives of FIS, along with relevant policies.

Long-Term FIS Strategy (BRA)

To elaborate a strategy and business plan for the future, notably to lead the organisation through the challenges that new technologies and consumer behaviour bring to snow sports and FIS.

FIS Nordic Junior World Ski Championships (CZE and NOR)

Future hosts of the FIS Nordic World Ski Championships to commit to host an edition FIS Nordic Junior World Ski Championships either before or within 1-2 years of the FIS Nordic World Ski Championships to ensure the best possible competition standards for the top level of junior Nordic athletes.

Financial and administrative decisions (Council)

As part of the statutory business the Congress approved the accounts and reports of the auditors from the 2014-2015 financial period, as well as the budget for the next two year period 2016-2017.

Financial Support calculation

A new system for the calculation of FIS financial support and special distribution payments to the National Ski Associations was approved. The system recognises participation in all FIS disciplines, competing at the FIS World Championships and the organisation of competitions on the FIS Calendar.
