Lillehammer Tour

The season opening tour will take place in Lillehammer (NOR) this year and feature a new programme:

Fri 30.11. Ind. Gundersen 5 km

Sat 01.12. Mass Start (10 km & 1 jump)

Sun 02.12. Ind. Gundersen 10 km

Each day is held as an individual competition (results are not taken from day to day as in the TRIPLE), with the normal amounts of World Cup points awarded. No athletes are eliminated in the first two events, instead normal qualifications are held on Friday and Sunday. In the Mass Start, the cross-country race result reduces the amount of 50. The athlete with the most World Cup points from the three events is the winner of the Lillehammer Tour.

You can find the detailed rules here. (Point 4.4)

FIS Junior World Championships Ladies

For the first time ever, Championship medals will be awarded to ladies in Nordic Combined. After a successful test event in Kandersteg (SUI) last year, the FIS Junior World Championships in Lahti (FIN) will see the first female Junior World Champion in Nordic Combined (Ind. Gundersen 5 km) on the 23.01.2019.

You can read more about the development of Ladies' Nordic Combined
