

Lisa Lazarus / professional floor covering designer

Meet Lisa Lazarus—California native, lover of rescue cats (say hi to Romeo!), and your go-to Showroom Consultant at Metro Flooring. With over three decades soaking up the Pacific Beach sun and an entire lifetime steeped in artistic heritage, Lisa's here to revolutionize the way you think about flooring.

You might wonder how Lisa became a maven in the floor covering world. Well, this isn't her first design rodeo. Born into a family where artistic genes run rampant, she was inspired by her great-uncle, Leon Bakst, a legend who designed costumes and sets for the Russian Ballet. It's safe to say, creativity is in her DNA.

She formalized her natural talents with a Fashion Design degree from the esteemed Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising (FIDM) in Los Angeles at the age of 22. For over two decades, Lisa was the creative force behind some of your favorite brands—Reef, Hurley, Reebok, and Kohl's, to name just a few.

Switching gears from fashion to flooring might seem like a leap, but for Lisa, it's all interconnected. With experience as an In-Home Color Consultant for Sherwin-Williams Paints, Lisa knows how to harmonize colors, furnishings, and finishes to perfection. She's not just selecting paint; she's curating your entire living experience. Flooring, like fashion, is about evoking feelings of beauty, comfort, and durability. Whether it's a plush carpet that feels like a hug for your feet or sleek hardwood that elevates your living space, Lisa understands that your floor is an essential part of your home's aesthetic.

As your Showroom Consultant at Metro Flooring, Lisa combines her extensive design background with her newfound passion for floor covering. Whether you're after luxury, durability, or that "wow" factor, Lisa's got you covered—literally.
