BALANCING ACT

Balancing Act were formed to bring together talented and committed people, on stage and off, to present the plays and musicals of Joe Graham.

"It's all about highly talented people coming together in a creative environment to present a theatrical experience for audiences way beyond their expectations. As well as being committed to producing high quality theatre, we firmly believe that the journey is every bit as important as the destination and so all of our productions and rehearsal processes are planned to ensure that everyone has a joyous and, at times, life-changing experience." Joe Graham

From 2001, Balancing Act have presented many one-act plays in various drama festivals with award-winning success. Beyond the festival circuit, Dancing to the Sound of Crunching Snails, was produced at the OFS Studio Oxford. This was followed by several productions including the 'charity' comedy, Fun Run, A Fistful of Mondays, and the outrageously funny Spare Prick. In 2015 Balancing Act produced the family musical comedy Quasimodo a GoGo at the Unicorn Theatre, Abingdon. Balancing Act came to Witney Corn Exchange in May 2023 with a powerful production of The Murmuration of Starlings, a love story that deals with the impact of dementia.

"As a local company, now that Witney has an excellent theatre, we are excited to work with Witney Corn Exchange to build our audience right here in Witney."

THE STORY OF A FISTFUL OF MONDAYS

Balancing Act first produced A Fistful of Mondays in 2009 at the OFS Studio Oxford to record-breaking audiences. This production created such a magical atmosphere throughout its run, that it led to a UK Tour in 2011, starring Shaun Williamson (EastEnders, Extras); Faye Tozer (Steps, Tell Me On A Sunday); Ian H Watkins (Steps, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang) and Lyn Paul (The New Seekers, Blood Brothers).

With the world now in need of some laughs and entertainment, Balancing Act felt it was the right time to present a revival of A Fistful of Mondays at the Witney Corn Exchange, followed by the bold and unique idea to present the world premiere of the sequel, For a Few Mondays More soon after in Spring 2025. In the process they will re-unite some of the original 2009 cast, as well as introducing some new Balancing Act names.
